

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 57-59 Ingalls Ave LLC MOLA-00027996
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 12:20:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

57-59 Ingalls Ave LLC
MOLA-00027996

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 211 cjs llc MOLA-00030546
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 7:43:25 AM
Attachments: image.png

211 cjs llc
MOLA-00030546

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A.J. Print & Design, LLC MOLA-00020061
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 9:53:22 AM
Attachments: image.png

A.J. Print & Design, LLC
MOLA-00020061

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A1 Jfk Convenience Store LLC MOLA-00007237
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 6:18:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

A1 Jfk Convenience Store LLC
MOLA-00007237

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Aheart Cares Therapy MOLA-00004568
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 6:02:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Aheart Cares Therapy
MOLA-00004568

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - All Garden State PT, LLC MOLA-00032436
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 12:39:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

All Garden State PT, LLC
MOLA-00032436

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ANATOLIY BARANOV CORP MOLA-00006870
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:53:28 AM
Attachments: image.png

ANATOLIY BARANOV CORP
MOLA-00006870

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Andrew Thom MOLA-00022428
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 6:03:58 PM
Attachments: image.png

Andrew Thom
MOLA-00022428

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Atlantic Plus Realty Group LLC MOLA-00018557
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 9:18:16 AM
Attachments: image.png

Atlantic Plus Realty Group LLC
MOLA-00018557

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Atlantic Prepaid Services, LLC MOLA-00005553
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 10:01:44 AM
Attachments: image.png

Atlantic Prepaid Services, LLC
MOLA-00005553

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BCAC Cuisine MOLA-00014794
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 4:40:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

BCAC Cuisine
MOLA-00014794

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 29, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Blue line security MOLA-00017587
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 12:03:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

Blue line security
MOLA-00017587

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bond Street Bar and Grill LLC MOLA-00008004
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 4:49:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bond Street Bar and Grill LLC
MOLA-00008004

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Box Styles MOLA-00016406
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 3:12:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

Box Styles
MOLA-00016406

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Brandy Lee Brown LCSW LLC MOLA-00012854
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 2:02:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

Brandy Lee Brown LCSW LLC
MOLA-00012854

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Carol James Travel, LLC CV19GEN8812
Date: Tuesday, November 24, 2020 10:32:11 AM
Attachments: image.png

Carol James Travel, LLC
CV19GEN8812

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 2 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 2 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated May 22, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jul 29, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 2 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kenneth Hart
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Monica Kostrzewa
Director Legal Affairs

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CASA BRAZIL STEAKHOUSE NEWARK INC MOLA-00019199
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 4:47:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

CASA BRAZIL STEAKHOUSE NEWARK INC
MOLA-00019199

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ceiling Floors and More MOLA-00027893
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 9:04:28 AM
Attachments: image.png

Ceiling Floors and More
MOLA-00027893

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Celine nail spa MOLA-00021662
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 5:52:18 PM
Attachments: image.png

Celine nail spa
MOLA-00021662

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chabad of NorthWest NJ-Montville MOLA-00007081
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 3:36:00 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chabad of NorthWest NJ-Montville
MOLA-00007081

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - charles bruce hairstyling llc MOLA-00016816
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 10:56:22 AM
Attachments: image.png

charles bruce hairstyling llc
MOLA-00016816

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - chi myong kim, cpa MOLA-00017921
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:40:04 AM
Attachments: image.png

chi myong kim, cpa
MOLA-00017921

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chris Clary Designs MOLA-00025247
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 6:06:54 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chris Clary Designs
MOLA-00025247

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chrisie Styles MOLA-00019778
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 2:51:30 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chrisie Styles
MOLA-00019778

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - City Paws Inc. MOLA-00028020
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 5:26:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

City Paws Inc.
MOLA-00028020

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Country Squire Restaurant MOLA-00013848
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:38:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

Country Squire Restaurant
MOLA-00013848

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Bruce Ciallella
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CYY Produce LLC MOLA-00017625
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 1:27:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

CYY Produce LLC
MOLA-00017625

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DACTechServices LLC MOLA-00030053
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 9:31:16 AM
Attachments: image.png

DACTechServices LLC
MOLA-00030053

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DKA Mgt LLC DBA Woodhaven Cleaners MOLA-00002504
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 8:26:46 AM
Attachments: image.png

DKA Mgt LLC DBA Woodhaven Cleaners
MOLA-00002504

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DORLI BRIDAL & TAYLOR MOLA-00012937
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 12:42:54 PM
Attachments: image.png

DORLI BRIDAL & TAYLOR
MOLA-00012937

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dramateyez LLC MOLA-00014063
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 9:44:55 AM
Attachments: image.png

Dramateyez LLC
MOLA-00014063

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Eco Green Cleaners MOLA-00013488
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:53:00 PM
Attachments: image.png

Eco Green Cleaners
MOLA-00013488

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Elegance Nails IV MOLA-00022851
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 4:09:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

Elegance Nails IV
MOLA-00022851

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Englishtown Lingerie MOLA-00026176
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 9:26:52 AM
Attachments: image.png

Englishtown Lingerie
MOLA-00026176

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Family Fun Enterprises MOLA-00010019
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 9:33:02 AM
Attachments: image.png

Family Fun Enterprises
MOLA-00010019

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - FARMER JOEN CORPORATION MOLA-00002320
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:11:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

FARMER JOEN CORPORATION
MOLA-00002320

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - FOODPRENEUR MOLA-00004758
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 9:09:25 AM
Attachments: image.png

FOODPRENEUR
MOLA-00004758

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Foss San Filippo & Milne LLC MOLA-00014216
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:32:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

Foss San Filippo & Milne LLC
MOLA-00014216

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gayla Olson Interiors MOLA-00024080
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 12:33:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Gayla Olson Interiors
MOLA-00024080

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hair Elegance Beauty Bar MOLA-00029075
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 5:17:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hair Elegance Beauty Bar
MOLA-00029075

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hairport of Branchburg LLC MOLA-00001581
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 8:33:46 AM
Attachments: image.png

Hairport of Branchburg LLC
MOLA-00001581

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - HANLON SCULPTURE STUDIO LLC MOLA-00010426
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 5:44:58 PM
Attachments: image.png

HANLON SCULPTURE STUDIO LLC
MOLA-00010426

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Heavenly Havens Creamery MOLA-00007650
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:29:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Heavenly Havens Creamery
MOLA-00007650

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Heilmann's Gulf MOLA-00001515
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 3:05:27 PM
Attachments: image.png

Heilmann's Gulf
MOLA-00001515

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - High bridge restaurant llc MOLA-00007261
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:36:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

High bridge restaurant llc
MOLA-00007261

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hoarders Express LLC MOLA-00021822
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 4:33:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hoarders Express LLC
MOLA-00021822

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - hometown drug inc MOLA-00034527
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 12:38:06 PM
Attachments: image.png

hometown drug inc
MOLA-00034527

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hy-Way Motors, Inc. MOLA-00014449
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:22:37 AM
Attachments: image.png

Hy-Way Motors, Inc.
MOLA-00014449

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - IV Technologies Inc MOLA-00020140
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 3:33:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

IV Technologies Inc
MOLA-00020140

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - J & J NEW WORLD LLC MOLA-00023102
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 1:00:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

J & J NEW WORLD LLC
MOLA-00023102

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JASM Consulting MOLA-00008900
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 8:10:24 AM
Attachments: image.png

JASM Consulting
MOLA-00008900

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jessy Patel LLC MOLA-00031798
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:58:07 AM
Attachments: image.png

Jessy Patel LLC
MOLA-00031798

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JMP Sheet Metal LLC MOLA-00024255
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 5:04:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

JMP Sheet Metal LLC
MOLA-00024255

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JoAnns Family Child Care MOLA-00035829
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:48:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

JoAnns Family Child Care
MOLA-00035829

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - John Parente MOLA-00025071
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:34:17 PM
Attachments: image.png

John Parente
MOLA-00025071

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jp dining llc MOLA-00017542
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 4:05:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

Jp dining llc
MOLA-00017542

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Just Math Enterprises LLC MOLA-00002095
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 12:46:21 PM
Attachments: image.png

Just Math Enterprises LLC
MOLA-00002095

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - K&t consultants LLC MOLA-00002143
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 12:55:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

K&t consultants LLC
MOLA-00002143

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - KAYLAH DIAMONDS & JEWELRY LAKEWOOD LLC MOLA-00012881
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:55:43 AM
Attachments: image.png

KAYLAH DIAMONDS & JEWELRY LAKEWOOD LLC
MOLA-00012881

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - King of Bagels LLC MOLA-00012656
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 2:08:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

King of Bagels LLC
MOLA-00012656

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Kwons martial arts MOLA-00004544
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 7:49:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

Kwons martial arts
MOLA-00004544

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lather Lounge Salon LLC MOLA-00016325
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:56:06 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lather Lounge Salon LLC
MOLA-00016325

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lawrence Brustofski MOLA-00030024
Date: Tuesday, December 1, 2020 3:57:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lawrence Brustofski
MOLA-00030024

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Bruce Ciallella
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Le Nails In Irvington MOLA-00030192
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 4:12:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

Le Nails In Irvington
MOLA-00030192

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Leonard Dozier MOLA-00024577
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 3:17:40 PM
Attachments: image.png

Leonard Dozier
MOLA-00024577

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Light Blue Skies LLC MOLA-00027905
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:37:28 AM
Attachments: image.png

Light Blue Skies LLC
MOLA-00027905

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Little Genius Academy, LLC MOLA-00023458
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 9:11:33 AM
Attachments: image.png

Little Genius Academy, LLC
MOLA-00023458

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - lvg food corp MOLA-00035675
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:07:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

lvg food corp
MOLA-00035675

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Martinsville Florist Inc MOLA-00025116
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:42:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Martinsville Florist Inc
MOLA-00025116

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Matt Okin MOLA-00001599
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 1:41:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Matt Okin
MOLA-00001599

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - mechanical components corp. MOLA-00024865
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 2:19:13 PM
Attachments: image.png mechanical components corp.

MOLA-00024865

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MICHELLE'S NAIL MOLA-00016358
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 6:05:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

MICHELLE'S NAIL
MOLA-00016358

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Microsun MOLA-00008662
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 4:43:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

Microsun
MOLA-00008662

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MONCHY DELI GROCERY MOLA-00032675
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:00:48 PM
Attachments: image.png

MONCHY DELI GROCERY
MOLA-00032675

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Morris County Industrial Recreation Association, Inc. MOLA-00015437
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:49:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Morris County Industrial Recreation Association, Inc.
MOLA-00015437

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sherina Lucas

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Morris Laundromat, LLC MOLA-00029488
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 4:38:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

Morris Laundromat, LLC
MOLA-00029488

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - NAILS FIRST LLC MOLA-00026442
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 1:20:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

NAILS FIRST LLC
MOLA-00026442

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Bruce Ciallella
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nast Partners MOLA-00002358
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 1:29:43 PM
Attachments: image.png

Nast Partners
MOLA-00002358

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Natural Talent, inc. MOLA-00011710
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 7:48:01 AM
Attachments: image.png

Natural Talent, inc.
MOLA-00011710

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - NEWS R US INC MOLA-00027123
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 9:49:18 AM
Attachments: image.png

NEWS R US INC
MOLA-00027123

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nina Njoku MOLA-00025468
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 1:31:23 PM
Attachments: image.png

Nina Njoku
MOLA-00025468

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nj Star Limo LLC MOLA-00001594
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 9:28:26 AM
Attachments: image.png

Nj Star Limo LLC
MOLA-00001594

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nosis MOLA-00024090
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 9:16:27 AM
Attachments: image.png

Nosis
MOLA-00024090

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - One Star Limosine MOLA-00029538
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:12:54 AM
Attachments: image.png

One Star Limosine
MOLA-00029538

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ottom-Beauty LLC MOLA-00029552
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:51:05 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ottom-Beauty LLC
MOLA-00029552

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Our Serenity Enterprises, Inc MOLA-00031512
Date: Tuesday, December 1, 2020 4:17:48 PM
Attachments: image.png

Our Serenity Enterprises, Inc
MOLA-00031512

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Paint 2 Smile LLC MOLA-00034859
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 12:36:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Paint 2 Smile LLC
MOLA-00034859

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Parillon Brothers Construction Corp MOLA-00016165
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:42:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

Parillon Brothers Construction Corp
MOLA-00016165

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Premier Printing Solutions, LLC MOLA-00030043
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 6:11:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

Premier Printing Solutions, LLC
MOLA-00030043

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Prestige Limo Service MOLA-00003624
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 3:30:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Prestige Limo Service
MOLA-00003624

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ProServe A/V, LLC MOLA-00023517
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 9:29:35 AM
Attachments: image.png

ProServe A/V, LLC
MOLA-00023517

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Purple Glaze LLC MOLA-00002998
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 4:45:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Purple Glaze LLC
MOLA-00002998

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Q5 ARCHITECTS, P.C. MOLA-00022670
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 10:56:54 AM
Attachments: image.png

Q5 ARCHITECTS, P.C.
MOLA-00022670

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rakoty LLC MOLA-00013112
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:43:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rakoty LLC
MOLA-00013112

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - RE Films MOLA-00024380
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 5:04:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

RE Films
MOLA-00024380

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - RESSOM FINANCIAL SERVICES MOLA-00028212
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 3:16:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

RESSOM FINANCIAL SERVICES
MOLA-00028212

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rosita's Yah LLC MOLA-00005051
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 1:04:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rosita's Yah LLC
MOLA-00005051

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rosmira's Exclusive ((& Up Super Store MOLA-00034269
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 5:15:45 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rosmira's Exclusive ((& Up Super Store
MOLA-00034269

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Shadow Music Group MOLA-00003908
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 7:35:20 AM
Attachments: image.png

Shadow Music Group
MOLA-00003908

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Somerfield Management Group MOLA-00037269
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 1:59:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

Somerfield Management Group
MOLA-00037269

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Studio B Matawan LLC MOLA-00003187
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 1:17:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

Studio B Matawan LLC
MOLA-00003187

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Bruce Ciallella
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Studio Copacabana, INC. MOLA-00011516
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 5:57:35 PM
Attachments: image.png

Studio Copacabana, INC.
MOLA-00011516

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Survivor Not By Chance LLC MOLA-00031094
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:03:36 AM
Attachments: image.png

Survivor Not By Chance LLC
MOLA-00031094

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Suzyques LLC MOLA-00000850
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 8:07:35 AM
Attachments: image.png

Suzyques LLC
MOLA-00000850

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Table Talk Corporate Dining Inc MOLA-00019276
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 5:32:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Table Talk Corporate Dining Inc
MOLA-00019276

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 29, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Temi African Market LLC MOLA-00006985
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 3:10:05 PM
Attachments: image.png

Temi African Market LLC
MOLA-00006985

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Black Box Performing Arts Center, Inc. MOLA-00001331
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 7:38:26 AM
Attachments: image.png

The Black Box Performing Arts Center, Inc.
MOLA-00001331

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Bradford Estate Operating Company, LLC MOLA-00007800
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 11:32:11 AM
Attachments: image.png

The Bradford Estate Operating Company, LLC
MOLA-00007800

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Goodman Group LLC MOLA-00007824
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:47:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Goodman Group LLC
MOLA-00007824

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Green Mind Project, Llc. MOLA-00016257
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 6:13:45 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Green Mind Project, Llc.
MOLA-00016257

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Purple Purpose LLC MOLA-00035077
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 6:14:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Purple Purpose LLC
MOLA-00035077

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Thirst Quenchers Vending Service Inc. MOLA-00020970
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 2:59:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Thirst Quenchers Vending Service Inc.
MOLA-00020970

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tilton Chiropractic and Wellness MOLA-00014516
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 12:58:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Tilton Chiropractic and Wellness
MOLA-00014516

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Toast Montclair Limited Liability MOLA-00003883
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 2:40:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

Toast Montclair Limited Liability
MOLA-00003883

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tommy's Garage MOLA-00002991
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 9:14:49 AM
Attachments: image.png

Tommy's Garage
MOLA-00002991

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Toms Little Gift Shoppe MOLA-00019395
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 3:14:56 PM
Attachments: image.png

Toms Little Gift Shoppe
MOLA-00019395

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - TONY'S INTERIOR PAINTING LLC MOLA-00028732
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 12:44:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

TONY'S INTERIOR PAINTING LLC
MOLA-00028732

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tortas lokas llc MOLA-00009129
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 9:49:26 AM
Attachments: image.png

Tortas lokas llc
MOLA-00009129

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tulsi Threading & Hair Salon LLC MOLA-00016366
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 9:45:57 AM
Attachments: image.png

Tulsi Threading & Hair Salon LLC
MOLA-00016366

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Wayne Orthodontics LLC MOLA-00021089
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 10:00:04 AM
Attachments: image.png

Wayne Orthodontics LLC
MOLA-00021089

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Wheee Get Fit & Play LLC MOLA-00026141
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 4:53:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

Wheee Get Fit & Play LLC
MOLA-00026141

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Willow & Olivia Creations, LLC MOLA-00003050
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 11:28:23 AM
Attachments: image.png

Willow & Olivia Creations, LLC
MOLA-00003050

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Witty's liquor @ Southplainfield MOLA-00019428
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 10:40:57 AM
Attachments: image.png

Witty's liquor @ Southplainfield
MOLA-00019428

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Wolf Fitness Brigantine, LLC MOLA-00012657
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 2:54:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Wolf Fitness Brigantine, LLC
MOLA-00012657

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Young's Nail Salon, Inc. MOLA-00018627
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 8:23:36 AM
Attachments: image.png

Young's Nail Salon, Inc.
MOLA-00018627

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - YOUR WIRELESS & COMPUTER SOLUTIONS LLC MOLA-00037306
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 8:20:15 AM
Attachments: image.png

YOUR WIRELESS & COMPUTER SOLUTIONS LLC
MOLA-00037306

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Zoe's Sound LLC. MOLA-00013431
Date: Thursday, December 3, 2020 5:01:35 PM
Attachments: image.png

Zoe's Sound LLC.
MOLA-00013431

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Zona Roofing LLC MOLA-00028378
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 11:25:48 AM
Attachments: image.png

Zona Roofing LLC
MOLA-00028378

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 3 Three Phase Solutions, LLC MOLA-00033134
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 7:04:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

3 Three Phase Solutions, LLC
MOLA-00033134

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 5:5 MOLA-00002734
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 9:16:46 AM
Attachments: image.png

5:5
MOLA-00002734

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 21 NETWORKS INC MOLA-00026265
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 10:06:56 AM
Attachments: image.png

21 NETWORKS INC
MOLA-00026265

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 98pt6S MOLA-00007124
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:52:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

98pt6S
MOLA-00007124

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 611 maple ave llc MOLA-00017871
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:59:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

611 maple ave llc
MOLA-00017871

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A & R 1 Landscaping MOLA-00016371
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 5:19:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

A & R 1 Landscaping
MOLA-00016371

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A Star Plumbing & Heating MOLA-00023173
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:41:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

A Star Plumbing & Heating
MOLA-00023173

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A&A Transformation center LLC MOLA-00003105
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:14:34 AM
Attachments: image.png

A&A Transformation center LLC
MOLA-00003105

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A.C Barber & Unisex LLC MOLA-00018128
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:57:57 PM
Attachments: image.png

A.C Barber & Unisex LLC
MOLA-00018128

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - AAMK, LLC. MOLA-00008348
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 10:56:52 AM
Attachments: image.png

AAMK, LLC.
MOLA-00008348

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ABC Janitorial LLC MOLA-00034141
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:29:30 AM
Attachments: image.png

ABC Janitorial LLC
MOLA-00034141

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - abdallah foods inc MOLA-00036700
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:58:22 AM
Attachments: image.png

abdallah foods inc
MOLA-00036700

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ACCUBOOKS BOOKKEEPING SERVICE LLC MOLA-00012743
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 5:03:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

ACCUBOOKS BOOKKEEPING SERVICE LLC
MOLA-00012743

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - acme trading llc MOLA-00026969
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 9:45:21 AM
Attachments: image.png

acme trading llc
MOLA-00026969

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Albini Pharmacy, Inc. MOLA-00006472
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:26:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Albini Pharmacy, Inc.
MOLA-00006472

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - All Media Consultants MOLA-00005899
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 4:21:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

All Media Consultants
MOLA-00005899

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - All My Friends, LLC MOLA-00015611
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 1:03:56 PM
Attachments: image.png

All My Friends, LLC
MOLA-00015611

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - All Star Gutter LLC MOLA-00025725
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 8:05:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

All Star Gutter LLC
MOLA-00025725

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Allen Pomerantz MD LLC MOLA-00002400
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 2:12:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

Allen Pomerantz MD LLC
MOLA-00002400

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ALMA Enterprises, LLC MOLA-00026653
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:55:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

ALMA Enterprises, LLC
MOLA-00026653

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Alumni Chiropractic Inc MOLA-00035132
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 6:35:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

Alumni Chiropractic Inc
MOLA-00035132

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Amanda C Wilmore MOLA-00030922
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:56:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

Amanda C Wilmore
MOLA-00030922

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - American Baptist Churches of N MOLA-00028765
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:56:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

American Baptist Churches of N
MOLA-00028765

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you are a not-for-profit engaged in religious activities that would be paid for with grant funds.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - American University of Holistic Healing MOLA-00012495
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:11:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

American University of Holistic Healing
MOLA-00012495

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 05, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sherina Lucas

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - amf stores inc. MOLA-00011839
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 10:15:16 AM
Attachments: image.png

amf stores inc.
MOLA-00011839

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - AMY NAILS & SPA LLC MOLA-00024689
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:43:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

AMY NAILS & SPA LLC
MOLA-00024689

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Andrew Lim MOLA-00003097
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 2:58:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

Andrew Lim
MOLA-00003097

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - angela mermini designs LLC MOLA-00023837
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 5:02:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

angela mermini designs LLC
MOLA-00023837

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - angelina nails llc MOLA-00005522
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:56:57 PM
Attachments: image.png

angelina nails llc
MOLA-00005522

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Angels Gowns llc MOLA-00011189
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:06:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

Angels Gowns llc
MOLA-00011189

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Antoinette Rose of Belmar Inc MOLA-00014105
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 12:44:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Antoinette Rose of Belmar Inc
MOLA-00014105

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A-Parent Corporation MOLA-00021674
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 1:05:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

A-Parent Corporation
MOLA-00021674

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - APL Construction LLC MOLA-00003638
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:50:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

APL Construction LLC
MOLA-00003638

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Apple Cleaners Inc MOLA-00022276
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 3:53:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Apple Cleaners Inc
MOLA-00022276

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Appletree Child Care LLC MOLA-00028357
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:23:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

Appletree Child Care LLC
MOLA-00028357

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ARABIC EVANGELICAL CHURCH CORP MOLA-00034600
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:46:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

ARABIC EVANGELICAL CHURCH CORP
MOLA-00034600

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ARC Automotive, LLC. MOLA-00009804
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:03:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

ARC Automotive, LLC.
MOLA-00009804

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Aromatic Therapy LLC MOLA-00027173
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 8:09:35 PM
Attachments: image.png

Aromatic Therapy LLC
MOLA-00027173

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ARS ELECTRIC AND DESIGN LLC MOLA-00028580
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 5:22:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

ARS ELECTRIC AND DESIGN LLC
MOLA-00028580

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Arwen Development LLC MOLA-00025394
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 10:18:15 AM
Attachments: image.png

Arwen Development LLC
MOLA-00025394

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ashaworks LLC MOLA-00017509
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 12:01:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ashaworks LLC
MOLA-00017509

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - AXXURA LLC MOLA-00031088
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:14:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

AXXURA LLC
MOLA-00031088

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - AYC TRADING CORP MOLA-00017306
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 7:26:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

AYC TRADING CORP
MOLA-00017306

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ayvasana LLC MOLA-00034306
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 6:52:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ayvasana LLC
MOLA-00034306

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Azucar Dance Studio LLC MOLA-00002674
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 9:24:43 AM
Attachments: image.png

Azucar Dance Studio LLC
MOLA-00002674

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Azza Care Invalid Coach Inc. MOLA-00012116
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:29:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

Azza Care Invalid Coach Inc.
MOLA-00012116

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bachi Hair Salon LLC MOLA-00028940
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 1:14:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bachi Hair Salon LLC
MOLA-00028940

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Barcade Jersey City, LLC MOLA-00028657
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:48:54 AM
Attachments: image.png

Barcade Jersey City, LLC
MOLA-00028657

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Barrett Contracting of NJ LTD MOLA-00034625
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:52:47 AM
Attachments: image.png

Barrett Contracting of NJ LTD
MOLA-00034625

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Barrington homestays llc MOLA-00004809
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:40:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

Barrington homestays llc
MOLA-00004809

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Basil Bandwagon Natural Market LLC MOLA-00033230
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 10:03:01 AM
Attachments: image.png

Basil Bandwagon Natural Market LLC
MOLA-00033230

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you have more than 50 Full Time Equivalent employees.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BAYONNE BBQ & WINGS CORP MOLA-00008731
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 3:02:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

BAYONNE BBQ & WINGS CORP
MOLA-00008731

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Beach Avenue Hospitality Inc MOLA-00011134
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 5:46:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Beach Avenue Hospitality Inc
MOLA-00011134

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Beau decor MOLA-00019796
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 2:56:40 PM
Attachments: image.png

Beau decor
MOLA-00019796

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Beauty & the Brow MOLA-00004979
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:35:18 PM
Attachments: image.png

Beauty & the Brow
MOLA-00004979

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Belco Insurance Group, Inc. MOLA-00032980
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 10:35:22 AM
Attachments: image.png

Belco Insurance Group, Inc.
MOLA-00032980

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bella's Way LLC MOLA-00033746
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:31:45 AM
Attachments: image.png

Bella's Way LLC
MOLA-00033746

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BelleJohns" Soul Food LLC MOLA-00002416
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 10:19:30 AM
Attachments: image.png

BelleJohns' Soul Food LLC
MOLA-00002416

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bellum Strength & Conditioning MOLA-00025051
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:46:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bellum Strength & Conditioning
MOLA-00025051

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Benefit Inc MOLA-00013538
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 4:08:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Benefit Inc
MOLA-00013538

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bernard Sampson Enterprises Inc MOLA-00022907
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:18:16 AM
Attachments: image.png

Bernard Sampson Enterprises Inc
MOLA-00022907

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bethlehem Early Learning Center MOLA-00036951
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 8:10:30 AM
Attachments: image.png

Bethlehem Early Learning Center
MOLA-00036951

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bhagvanti Enterprises LLC MOLA-00027185
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:54:20 AM
Attachments: image.png

Bhagvanti Enterprises LLC
MOLA-00027185

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Big Hugs Childcare & Development Center, LLC MOLA-00031955
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 3:28:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

Big Hugs Childcare & Development Center, LLC
MOLA-00031955

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bijou Nail & Spa LLC MOLA-00001952
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:26:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bijou Nail & Spa LLC
MOLA-00001952

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bike Arts LLC MOLA-00033011
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 7:16:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bike Arts LLC
MOLA-00033011

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BIRJU TRAVEL LLC MOLA-00028166
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:39:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

BIRJU TRAVEL LLC
MOLA-00028166

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BJ Foodmart LLC MOLA-00016442
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:29:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

BJ Foodmart LLC
MOLA-00016442

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BLACK RIVER BARN, LLC MOLA-00011485
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 1:51:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

BLACK RIVER BARN, LLC
MOLA-00011485

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Blessong LLC MOLA-00012232
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 11:05:45 AM
Attachments: image.png

Blessong LLC
MOLA-00012232

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Blue Seal Transport LLC MOLA-00027364
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 1:26:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Blue Seal Transport LLC
MOLA-00027364

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - bodhi by anthony monetti llc MOLA-00006554
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 5:48:54 PM
Attachments: image.png

bodhi by anthony monetti llc
MOLA-00006554

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bodii Brand LLC MOLA-00030658
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 5:50:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bodii Brand LLC
MOLA-00030658

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bollywood Limo llc MOLA-00012335
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 11:51:09 AM
Attachments: image.png

Bollywood Limo llc
MOLA-00012335

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Boom University LLC MOLA-00020665
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 8:47:58 AM
Attachments: image.png

Boom University LLC
MOLA-00020665

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BORUGA PRODUCTION LLC MOLA-00034172
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:42:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

BORUGA PRODUCTION LLC
MOLA-00034172

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BreadHeads Bakery LLC MOLA-00020437
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 1:46:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

BreadHeads Bakery LLC
MOLA-00020437

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Brookfield Bowl Inc. MOLA-00009546
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 12:28:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Brookfield Bowl Inc.
MOLA-00009546

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Brown Bell Consulting, LLC MOLA-00019649
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:03:09 PM
Attachments: image.png

Brown Bell Consulting, LLC
MOLA-00019649

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Brucecy Marketing Group MOLA-00032435
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 6:46:06 PM
Attachments: image.png

Brucecy Marketing Group
MOLA-00032435

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Brunos auto center MOLA-00029265
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:52:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Brunos auto center
MOLA-00029265

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BSE GC, LLC MOLA-00011880
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:25:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

BSE GC, LLC
MOLA-00011880

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bus Stop Luncheonette MOLA-00010949
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:08:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bus Stop Luncheonette
MOLA-00010949

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BYMK Cleaners LLC MOLA-00031284
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 4:43:43 PM
Attachments: image.png

BYMK Cleaners LLC
MOLA-00031284

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Cafe Mille Luci, LLC MOLA-00003092
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 4:35:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Cafe Mille Luci, LLC
MOLA-00003092

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Caitlin Smith CPA MOLA-00010688
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:32:35 PM
Attachments: image.png

Caitlin Smith CPA
MOLA-00010688

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Calabrese's Barbershop LLC MOLA-00002167
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:03:17 PM
Attachments: image.png

Calabrese's Barbershop LLC
MOLA-00002167

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Calvary United Methodist Church MOLA-00015968
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 5:55:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Calvary United Methodist Church
MOLA-00015968

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you are a not-for-profit engaged in religious activities that would be paid for with grant funds.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CaMayes Hair Studio MOLA-00031023
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:05:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

CaMayes Hair Studio
MOLA-00031023

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Camilo's Hairworks MOLA-00010073
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 6:42:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Camilo's Hairworks
MOLA-00010073

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Capital Translations, LLC MOLA-00008905
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 7:18:14 PM
Attachments: image.png

Capital Translations, LLC
MOLA-00008905

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Carismas Party Planning Services LLC MOLA-00010635
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:32:40 PM
Attachments: image.png

Carismas Party Planning Services LLC
MOLA-00010635

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Carousel Corporation MOLA-00002249
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:27:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Carousel Corporation
MOLA-00002249

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CASCADE BISTRO LLC MOLA-00005417
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:36:45 PM
Attachments: image.png

CASCADE BISTRO LLC
MOLA-00005417

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CAT Builders LLC MOLA-00007595
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:10:54 AM
Attachments: image.png

CAT Builders LLC
MOLA-00007595

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CBC22LLC MOLA-00031165
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 7:24:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

CBC22LLC
MOLA-00031165

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Cervor Global Solutions, LLC MOLA-00014161
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 6:22:45 PM
Attachments: image.png

Cervor Global Solutions, LLC
MOLA-00014161

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chad M Sherwood, LLC MOLA-00005640
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:18:53 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chad M Sherwood, LLC
MOLA-00005640

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chatham Auto Repair, LLC MOLA-00022486
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 1:07:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chatham Auto Repair, LLC
MOLA-00022486

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chef It Up & Chef It Up 2 Go, LLC MOLA-00011028
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 9:44:14 AM
Attachments: image.png

Chef It Up & Chef It Up 2 Go, LLC
MOLA-00011028

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chelsea Tours LLC MOLA-00015352
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:01:27 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chelsea Tours LLC
MOLA-00015352

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Cheryl Finbow Graphic Design MOLA-00019564
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:17:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

Cheryl Finbow Graphic Design
MOLA-00019564

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chicken Scratch LLC MOLA-00006473
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 11:58:56 AM
Attachments: image.png

Chicken Scratch LLC
MOLA-00006473

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Children of Promise Academy LLC MOLA-00014096
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 5:01:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

Children of Promise Academy LLC
MOLA-00014096

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chinatown Kitchen LLC MOLA-00009072
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:27:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chinatown Kitchen LLC
MOLA-00009072

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chinkys Toys LLC MOLA-00013133
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:33:14 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chinkys Toys LLC
MOLA-00013133

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chtham School House MOLA-00008103
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:14:10 AM
Attachments: image.png

Chtham School House
MOLA-00008103

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - cioci enterprise llc MOLA-00015761
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:19:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

cioci enterprise llc
MOLA-00015761

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Class Auto Trade Inc. MOLA-00022201
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:47:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

Class Auto Trade Inc.
MOLA-00022201

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CLEAN SWEEP SOUTH, LLC MOLA-00011399
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:16:17 AM
Attachments: image.png

CLEAN SWEEP SOUTH, LLC
MOLA-00011399

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Clearly Branded LLC MOLA-00020478
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:40:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

Clearly Branded LLC
MOLA-00020478

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - color lounge llc MOLA-00004336
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 8:24:40 AM
Attachments: image.png

color lounge llc
MOLA-00004336

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Columbian Institute MOLA-00014880
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 5:40:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

Columbian Institute
MOLA-00014880

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Come Clean LLC MOLA-00006494
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 11:23:37 AM
Attachments: image.png

Come Clean LLC
MOLA-00006494

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Commercial Mortgage Depot MOLA-00001507
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:13:09 AM
Attachments: image.png

Commercial Mortgage Depot
MOLA-00001507

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Compassionate Heart Productions MOLA-00026763
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 5:47:30 PM
Attachments: image.png

Compassionate Heart Productions
MOLA-00026763

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Congregation Bnai Israel MOLA-00027136
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 4:50:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

Congregation Bnai Israel
MOLA-00027136

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Connie Doolans Bar & Restaurant Inc MOLA-00015993
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 11:23:31 AM
Attachments: image.png

Connie Doolans Bar & Restaurant Inc
MOLA-00015993

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Connie's Vintage Trunk and Costumes LLC MOLA-00032771
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 10:17:39 AM
Attachments: image.png

Connie's Vintage Trunk and Costumes LLC
MOLA-00032771

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Courtesy Travel Agency MOLA-00009124
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 2:10:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Courtesy Travel Agency
MOLA-00009124

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - COYLE FLOORING LLC MOLA-00022435
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 10:33:05 AM
Attachments: image.png

COYLE FLOORING LLC
MOLA-00022435

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CPRP Corp MOLA-00014548
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 4:16:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

CPRP Corp
MOLA-00014548

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Creative cinemas ny llc MOLA-00011997
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 12:38:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

Creative cinemas ny llc
MOLA-00011997

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CRYSTAL KODADA LLC MOLA-00019784
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 9:38:39 AM
Attachments: image.png

CRYSTAL KODADA LLC
MOLA-00019784

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Cuervo & Sons MOLA-00029454
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:18:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

Cuervo & Sons
MOLA-00029454

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Culinary World LLC MOLA-00002410
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:37:56 AM
Attachments: image.png

Culinary World LLC
MOLA-00002410

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Current Wave One LLC MOLA-00036007
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:13:40 PM
Attachments: image.png

Current Wave One LLC
MOLA-00036007

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CW Lifestyle LLC MOLA-00007502
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 12:36:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

CW Lifestyle LLC
MOLA-00007502

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Cynthia's Barber Stylist Shop MOLA-00024557
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 10:43:34 AM
Attachments: image.png

Cynthia's Barber Stylist Shop
MOLA-00024557

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - D&E STONE SOLUTIONS, INC MOLA-00024789
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 1:35:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

D&E STONE SOLUTIONS, INC
MOLA-00024789

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DAALD Senior Care LLC MOLA-00000791
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:12:06 PM
Attachments: image.png

DAALD Senior Care LLC
MOLA-00000791

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DAFNA GENERAL STORE MOLA-00034021
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:01:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

DAFNA GENERAL STORE
MOLA-00034021

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DAO HOLDING, LLC MOLA-00031945
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:13:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

DAO HOLDING, LLC
MOLA-00031945

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Darla Bruno MOLA-00022969
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:14:23 PM
Attachments: image.png

Darla Bruno
MOLA-00022969

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dasi Salon LLC MOLA-00002774
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 8:09:40 AM
Attachments: image.png

Dasi Salon LLC
MOLA-00002774

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Daves auto and towing service MOLA-00025240
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:54:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

Daves auto and towing service
MOLA-00025240

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Davis, Timothy MOLA-00026405
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:20:10 AM
Attachments: image.png

Davis, Timothy
MOLA-00026405

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - De Martino Restaurant Inc. MOLA-00003697
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 12:43:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

De Martino Restaurant Inc.
MOLA-00003697

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DejaVu Hair Design, LLC MOLA-00031978
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:47:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

DejaVu Hair Design, LLC
MOLA-00031978

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DENIS BEAUTY SALON LLC MOLA-00005930
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 12:16:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

DENIS BEAUTY SALON LLC
MOLA-00005930

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dental Associates of Hoboken MOLA-00003760
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 9:20:33 AM
Attachments: image.png

Dental Associates of Hoboken
MOLA-00003760

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Details Hair & Skin, Inc MOLA-00005222
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:30:05 AM
Attachments: image.png

Details Hair & Skin, Inc
MOLA-00005222

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DHARMA HOSPITALITY SOLUTIONS MOLA-00019058
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:57:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

DHARMA HOSPITALITY SOLUTIONS
MOLA-00019058

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 05, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Diversified Advisory Associates, LLC MOLA-00001226
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:06:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Diversified Advisory Associates, LLC
MOLA-00001226

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Divine Elegance by Deirdre LLC MOLA-00019118
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 12:21:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

Divine Elegance by Deirdre LLC
MOLA-00019118

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DJ AMMO LLC MOLA-00007735
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:03:58 PM
Attachments: image.png

DJ AMMO LLC
MOLA-00007735

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DJ Heywood LLC MOLA-00020210
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:55:17 PM
Attachments: image.png

DJ Heywood LLC
MOLA-00020210

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - DnK Communications LLC MOLA-00029501
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:07:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

DnK Communications LLC
MOLA-00029501

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dogwood Ventures NJ Two LLC MOLA-00001368
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 10:58:07 AM
Attachments: image.png

Dogwood Ventures NJ Two LLC
MOLA-00001368

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dominican Formula Limited Liability MOLA-00013691
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 12:56:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

Dominican Formula Limited Liability
MOLA-00013691

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Doremi ILC MOLA-00026328
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:09:57 PM
Attachments: image.png

Doremi ILC
MOLA-00026328

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Douglas Communication Services LLC MOLA-00034980
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 3:22:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Douglas Communication Services LLC
MOLA-00034980

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dover Dental Labs Inc MOLA-00021372
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:13:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

Dover Dental Labs Inc
MOLA-00021372

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dowco Inc MOLA-00013863
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 1:54:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Dowco Inc
MOLA-00013863

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Down town nails and spa llc MOLA-00003455
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:29:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Down town nails and spa llc
MOLA-00003455

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM
To:
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - E. Limo LLC MOLA-00033702
Date: Saturday, December 19, 2020 11:54:27 AM

E. Limo LLC
MOLA-00033702

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director – HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Earth To Ocean LLC MOLA-00019961
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 2:54:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Earth To Ocean LLC
MOLA-00019961

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - East Coast C-Cerpants, LLC MOLA-00020455
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:06:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

East Coast C-Cerpants, LLC
MOLA-00020455

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - El Angle S LLC MOLA-00024025
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 8:30:26 AM
Attachments: image.png

El Angle S LLC
MOLA-00024025

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - El Sabroso Restaurant of Jersey City LLC MOLA-00023528
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 6:13:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

El Sabroso Restaurant of Jersey City LLC
MOLA-00023528

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Elawam LLC MOLA-00025234
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 4:52:58 PM
Attachments: image.png

Elawam LLC
MOLA-00025234

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ELBAH LLC MOLA-00030860
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:26:56 AM
Attachments: image.png

ELBAH LLC
MOLA-00030860

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Elements of Yoga, LLC MOLA-00014683
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 3:32:21 PM
Attachments: image.png

Elements of Yoga, LLC
MOLA-00014683

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Eleos Family Services, LLC MOLA-00013308
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 6:16:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Eleos Family Services, LLC
MOLA-00013308

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Elite Nails and Spa, LLC MOLA-00027399
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:40:09 PM
Attachments: image.png

Elite Nails and Spa, LLC
MOLA-00027399

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Elizabeth Coppola Events MOLA-00014467
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 9:08:05 AM
Attachments: image.png

Elizabeth Coppola Events
MOLA-00014467

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Elizabeth Salon Salon INC MOLA-00035126
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:23:56 AM
Attachments: image.png

Elizabeth Salon Salon INC
MOLA-00035126

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Emerald City Tea and more MOLA-00013463
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 7:12:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

Emerald City Tea and more
MOLA-00013463

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Emit Beauty LLC MOLA-00019309
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:25:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

Emit Beauty LLC
MOLA-00019309

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Engineered Plastic Products, Inc. MOLA-00032228
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:59:55 AM
Attachments: image.png

Engineered Plastic Products, Inc.
MOLA-00032228

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Englewood Florist Inc. MOLA-00032544
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 3:15:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Englewood Florist Inc.
MOLA-00032544

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Euoro Jewelry LLC MOLA-00010342
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 4:35:53 PM
Attachments: image.png

Euoro Jewelry LLC
MOLA-00010342

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Event Horizon Audio-Visual LLC MOLA-00009255
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 11:38:48 AM
Attachments: image.png

Event Horizon Audio-Visual LLC
MOLA-00009255

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Events Custom Taylored LLC MOLA-00031571
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:41:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

Events Custom Taylored LLC
MOLA-00031571

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Excel Dentistry, P.C. MOLA-00008227
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 12:44:13 PM
Attachments: image.png

Excel Dentistry, P.C.
MOLA-00008227

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Excel Fencing Academy MOLA-00008776
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 2:56:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Excel Fencing Academy
MOLA-00008776

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - exclusiver jewelers MOLA-00018070
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:00:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

exclusiver jewelers
MOLA-00018070

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - EZ Mart LLC MOLA-00017046
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:14:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

EZ Mart LLC
MOLA-00017046

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - EZEXPRESS LIMO MOLA-00008987
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 1:46:48 PM
Attachments: image.png

EZEXPRESS LIMO
MOLA-00008987

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Family orientated business llc MOLA-00033036
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 5:17:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

Family orientated business llc
MOLA-00033036

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - FAR EASTERN INTERNATIONAL TRADING CORP. MOLA-00023952
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:01:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

FAR EASTERN INTERNATIONAL TRADING CORP.
MOLA-00023952

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - FavMor LLC MOLA-00031713
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 8:38:23 AM
Attachments: image.png

FavMor LLC
MOLA-00031713

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Fei Yue Preschool MOLA-00026744
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 1:37:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

Fei Yue Preschool
MOLA-00026744

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - First Boloney, LLC MOLA-00023482
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 12:07:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

First Boloney, LLC
MOLA-00023482

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - FIT LIFE CENTER LLC MOLA-00022255
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:41:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

FIT LIFE CENTER LLC
MOLA-00022255

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Fit2Swim MOLA-00007386
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 3:19:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Fit2Swim
MOLA-00007386

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - FJ'S RESERVOIR BAR & GRILL INC MOLA-00027803
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 12:06:40 PM
Attachments: image.png

FJ'S RESERVOIR BAR & GRILL INC
MOLA-00027803

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Floyd Wilson MOLA-00027263
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 1:49:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

Floyd Wilson
MOLA-00027263

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ford Cleaner Inc MOLA-00013213
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:14:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ford Cleaner Inc
MOLA-00013213

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - FORMALWEAR2GO.LLC MOLA-00031056
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 7:55:08 AM
Attachments: image.png

FORMALWEAR2GO.LLC
MOLA-00031056

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Fort Lee Orthodontic Associates MOLA-00016978
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 5:37:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Fort Lee Orthodontic Associates
MOLA-00016978

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Frank's Garage LLC MOLA-00032502
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:20:56 PM
Attachments: image.png

Frank's Garage LLC
MOLA-00032502

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gabriels Fountain Restaurant MOLA-00003261
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 9:45:56 AM
Attachments: image.png

Gabriels Fountain Restaurant
MOLA-00003261

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Galaxy vip limousine MOLA-00013573
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 4:11:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Galaxy vip limousine
MOLA-00013573

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gamja tang tang inc MOLA-00016770
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 5:37:54 PM
Attachments: image.png

Gamja tang tang inc
MOLA-00016770

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gap Development LLC MOLA-00018419
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 4:09:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

Gap Development LLC
MOLA-00018419

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - GIO Paving and Masonry Contractors MOLA-00036511
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:37:13 PM
Attachments: image.png

GIO Paving and Masonry Contractors
MOLA-00036511

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Glow hair salon Llc MOLA-00008775
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 4:59:42 PM
Attachments: image.png

Glow hair salon Llc
MOLA-00008775

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Go Tour America MOLA-00028401
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 8:50:26 AM
Attachments: image.png

Go Tour America
MOLA-00028401

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Goffins 23 South LLC MOLA-00023079
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 9:45:43 PM
Attachments: image.png

Goffins 23 South LLC
MOLA-00023079

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gold-man Associates MOLA-00007737
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 3:59:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Gold-man Associates
MOLA-00007737

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - GOOD FRIENDS CHEN LLC MOLA-00013343
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:17:55 AM
Attachments: image.png

GOOD FRIENDS CHEN LLC
MOLA-00013343

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - GOOD K INC MOLA-00007905
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 5:40:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

GOOD K INC
MOLA-00007905

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Good News Home, Inc. MOLA-00031288
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 8:33:34 AM
Attachments: image.png

Good News Home, Inc.
MOLA-00031288

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Grasshopper Irish Pub & Restaurant LLC. MOLA-00013276
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 4:06:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

Grasshopper Irish Pub & Restaurant LLC.
MOLA-00013276

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Great Gifts Hand-crafted MOLA-00024790
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 12:44:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

Great Gifts Hand-crafted
MOLA-00024790

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Green Leaf Plumbing, Heating & Cooling, LLC MOLA-00034512
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 3:19:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Green Leaf Plumbing, Heating & Cooling, LLC
MOLA-00034512

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gregory Hotel, INC MOLA-00009413
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 6:44:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

Gregory Hotel, INC
MOLA-00009413

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - GrezGraphics, LLC MOLA-00016801
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 2:24:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

GrezGraphics, LLC
MOLA-00016801

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Grove Street Bicycles LLC MOLA-00000884
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:22:00 PM
Attachments: image.png

Grove Street Bicycles LLC
MOLA-00000884

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - H&P Innovation LLC MOLA-00026954
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 9:56:49 AM
Attachments: image.png

H&P Innovation LLC
MOLA-00026954

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Haddonfield Classical Enterprises LLC MOLA-00011321
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 12:02:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

Haddonfield Classical Enterprises LLC
MOLA-00011321

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hair Evolution Beauty Salon MOLA-00030071
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 5:45:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hair Evolution Beauty Salon
MOLA-00030071

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Haneuska's Creative Hands Family Childcare MOLA-00029572
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 12:52:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

Haneuska's Creative Hands Family Childcare
MOLA-00029572

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - HCW inc MOLA-00013992
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 5:11:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

HCW inc
MOLA-00013992

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Heart 2 Hut MOLA-00019865
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 5:47:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

Heart 2 Hut
MOLA-00019865

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Heart Beet NJ of Cherry Hill LLC MOLA-00025169
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 10:57:35 AM
Attachments: image.png

Heart Beet NJ of Cherry Hill LLC
MOLA-00025169

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - HeartStrings MOLA-00035262
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 8:32:10 AM
Attachments: image.png

HeartStrings
MOLA-00035262

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Heera Transport Inc MOLA-00021056
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 8:16:43 AM
Attachments: image.png

Heera Transport Inc
MOLA-00021056

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - HemangPatel MOLA-00004994
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:24:05 AM
Attachments: image.png

HemangPatel
MOLA-00004994

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Herah Esthetic LLC MOLA-00031783
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:58:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

Herah Esthetic LLC
MOLA-00031783

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - High End Barbershop, LLC MOLA-00002214
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 11:59:49 AM
Attachments: image.png

High End Barbershop, LLC
MOLA-00002214

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hillsborough Star Diner MOLA-00001828
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:34:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hillsborough Star Diner
MOLA-00001828

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hillside Social & Athletic Club, Inc MOLA-00027191
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:17:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hillside Social & Athletic Club, Inc
MOLA-00027191

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - HOLLY RAVINE CLEANERS MOLA-00016857
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 4:33:06 PM
Attachments: image.png

HOLLY RAVINE CLEANERS
MOLA-00016857

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Holly's Wedding Flowers LLC MOLA-00009695
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 2:42:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Holly's Wedding Flowers LLC
MOLA-00009695

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - HomegrownCoffeeBar MOLA-00019321
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 12:16:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

HomegrownCoffeeBar
MOLA-00019321

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 29, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hoorn llc MOLA-00031505
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 4:41:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hoorn llc
MOLA-00031505

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hornet retail, llc MOLA-00003733
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:28:43 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hornet retail, llc
MOLA-00003733

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Howard Law LLP MOLA-00022210
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:26:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Howard Law LLP
MOLA-00022210

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hudson photo q MOLA-00006441
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 8:47:11 AM
Attachments: image.png

Hudson photo q
MOLA-00006441

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hung ta MOLA-00003526
Date: Friday, December 4, 2020 12:19:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hung ta
MOLA-00003526

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - I capelli salon MOLA-00004738
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 8:35:22 AM
Attachments: image.png

I capelli salon
MOLA-00004738

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - i4 Sustainability LLC MOLA-00030403
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 1:02:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

i4 Sustainability LLC
MOLA-00030403

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Iceberg Farms MOLA-00034666
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:12:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

Iceberg Farms
MOLA-00034666

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Iglesia Evangelica Hispana Inc MOLA-00015143
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:54:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

Iglesia Evangelica Hispana Inc
MOLA-00015143

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you are a not-for-profit engaged in religious activities that would be paid for with grant funds.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - IL Palazzo Inc. MOLA-00003617
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 8:28:03 AM
Attachments: image.png

IL Palazzo Inc.
MOLA-00003617

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Image Beauty Salon MOLA-00003294
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:13:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Image Beauty Salon
MOLA-00003294

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - India Heritage Foundation NJ/NY Inc MOLA-00000967
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 1:49:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

India Heritage Foundation NJ/NY Inc
MOLA-00000967

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Inessa Slavin DDS PC MOLA-00022526
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 2:23:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

Inessa Slavin DDS PC
MOLA-00022526

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - INNO PASS, LLC. MOLA-00035948
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 8:58:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

INNO PASS, LLC.
MOLA-00035948

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Invincible City, Inc MOLA-00002576
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:45:57 PM
Attachments: image.png

Invincible City, Inc
MOLA-00002576

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ionio Seafood House LLC MOLA-00005862
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:16:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ionio Seafood House LLC
MOLA-00005862

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - iProperty Holdings LLC MOLA-00012537
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 11:56:03 AM
Attachments: image.png

iProperty Holdings LLC
MOLA-00012537

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - IRALYN INC MOLA-00028403
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:12:00 AM
Attachments: image.png

IRALYN INC
MOLA-00028403

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Iron Bar LLC MOLA-00011161
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 1:56:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Iron Bar LLC
MOLA-00011161

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jadry Clean LLC MOLA-00003308
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:26:41 AM
Attachments: image.png

Jadry Clean LLC
MOLA-00003308

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jaimahavir815 LLC MOLA-00006946
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:50:38 AM
Attachments: image.png

Jaimahavir815 LLC
MOLA-00006946

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Javelin Logistics LLC MOLA-00008286
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:09:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

Javelin Logistics LLC
MOLA-00008286

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JAYESHKUMAR PATEL MOLA-00006272
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:16:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

JAYESHKUMAR PATEL
MOLA-00006272

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jazy Clinton LLC MOLA-00036753
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:21:55 AM
Attachments: image.png

Jazy Clinton LLC
MOLA-00036753

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JBHAGAT LLC MOLA-00002007
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 10:23:13 AM
Attachments: image.png

JBHAGAT LLC
MOLA-00002007

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JCP ASSOCIATES LLC MOLA-00015171
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:39:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

JCP ASSOCIATES LLC
MOLA-00015171

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jersey merch market llc MOLA-00020621
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 9:01:48 AM
Attachments: image.png

Jersey merch market llc
MOLA-00020621

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jersey Physical Therapy Associates, LLC MOLA-00027889
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 5:36:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

Jersey Physical Therapy Associates, LLC
MOLA-00027889

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jersey Shore Geriatrics INC MOLA-00000902
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:27:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Jersey Shore Geriatrics INC
MOLA-00000902

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jersey Uniform Industrial Wear LLC MOLA-00021247
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:29:49 AM
Attachments: image.png

Jersey Uniform Industrial Wear LLC
MOLA-00021247

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JGSC Group, LLC MOLA-00005721
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:44:56 PM
Attachments: image.png

JGSC Group, LLC
MOLA-00005721

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jillaney's luncheonette MOLA-00018924
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 12:26:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

Jillaney's luncheonette
MOLA-00018924

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JJGG LLC MOLA-00010411
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:04:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

JJGG LLC
MOLA-00010411

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JL Village Cleaners LLC MOLA-00001746
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:48:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

JL Village Cleaners LLC
MOLA-00001746

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JM PIZZA & SUBS INC MOLA-00010436
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 11:15:33 AM
Attachments: image.png

JM PIZZA & SUBS INC
MOLA-00010436

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - John D. Lawrence, Inc. MOLA-00032531
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:49:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

John D. Lawrence, Inc.
MOLA-00032531

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Joy's Nail MOLA-00001844
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 1:57:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

Joy's Nail
MOLA-00001844

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JS Music and Video MOLA-00020065
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:15:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

JS Music and Video
MOLA-00020065

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JSK Taekwondo MOLA-00009985
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 8:08:55 AM
Attachments: image.png

JSK Taekwondo
MOLA-00009985

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - KA Stockton & Company MOLA-00012052
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 2:16:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

KA Stockton & Company
MOLA-00012052

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Kiddie Korner Learning Center MOLA-00026756
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:59:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Kiddie Korner Learning Center
MOLA-00026756

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Kingsway Cleaners MOLA-00015822
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 9:31:31 AM
Attachments: image.png

Kingsway Cleaners
MOLA-00015822

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Kitchen Beautiful LLC MOLA-00002753
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 10:38:17 AM
Attachments: image.png

Kitchen Beautiful LLC
MOLA-00002753

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - KOOH Design LLC MOLA-00004300
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:37:55 PM
Attachments: image.png

KOOH Design LLC
MOLA-00004300

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Korea Taekwondo Nutley LLC MOLA-00012885
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:25:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

Korea Taekwondo Nutley LLC
MOLA-00012885

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - KORONA, L.L.C. MOLA-00029342
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 5:26:21 PM
Attachments: image.png

KORONA, L.L.C.
MOLA-00029342

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Kos2Kos Transport MOLA-00015027
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 2:14:21 PM
Attachments: image.png

Kos2Kos Transport
MOLA-00015027

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Krispy Pizza Rutgers Corp MOLA-00000901
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 6:40:45 PM
Attachments: image.png

Krispy Pizza Rutgers Corp
MOLA-00000901

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Kubota,Naho MOLA-00036140
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 6:52:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

Kubota,Naho
MOLA-00036140

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Kwest Associates Inc MOLA-00001592
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:18:43 AM
Attachments: image.png

Kwest Associates Inc
MOLA-00001592

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - L & G Services of NJ, Inc MOLA-00000825
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 4:53:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

L & G Services of NJ, Inc
MOLA-00000825

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - L AND A CLEANING SERVICES MOLA-00013481
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 1:59:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

L AND A CLEANING SERVICES
MOLA-00013481

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - La ferre contractors llc MOLA-00013389
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 4:04:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

La ferre contractors llc
MOLA-00013389

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - La Moda Studio MOLA-00009290
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 1:55:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

La Moda Studio
MOLA-00009290

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lafayette Dry Cleaners MOLA-00017370
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:57:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lafayette Dry Cleaners
MOLA-00017370

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lakeside Drive Design LLC MOLA-00033628
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 12:16:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lakeside Drive Design LLC
MOLA-00033628

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lauriello electric inc MOLA-00029404
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 9:23:17 AM
Attachments: image.png

Lauriello electric inc
MOLA-00029404

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LAW OFFICE OF RENA THAKKAR LLC MOLA-00019475
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:27:55 AM
Attachments: image.png

LAW OFFICE OF RENA THAKKAR LLC
MOLA-00019475

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Laxmi Ma First LLC MOLA-00034719
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:56:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

Laxmi Ma First LLC
MOLA-00034719

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LC Nails & Spa Inc MOLA-00030157
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 9:54:39 AM
Attachments: image.png

LC Nails & Spa Inc
MOLA-00030157

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lee Ann Kampf & Associates, LLC MOLA-00004635
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:52:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lee Ann Kampf & Associates, LLC
MOLA-00004635

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LEM Enterprizes MOLA-00024499
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 10:42:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

LEM Enterprizes
MOLA-00024499

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lepore Brands LLC MOLA-00021191
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 12:32:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lepore Brands LLC
MOLA-00021191

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Let It Ride Transportation LLC MOLA-00023152
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:49:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Let It Ride Transportation LLC
MOLA-00023152

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Level One Neurosurgery LLC MOLA-00027015
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:51:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

Level One Neurosurgery LLC
MOLA-00027015

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LGMJ Restaurant Group LLC MOLA-00008059
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:57:05 AM
Attachments: image.png

LGMJ Restaurant Group LLC
MOLA-00008059

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LIFE'STILE&STONE MOLA-00007928
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 10:54:31 AM
Attachments: image.png

LIFE'STILE&STONE
MOLA-00007928

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - light bulb coffee shop llc MOLA-00016840
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:52:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

light bulb coffee shop llc
MOLA-00016840

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business was not established prior to 2/15/2020. your business was not established prior to 2/15/2020.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lindsey C. Holmes MOLA-00004060
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 2:26:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lindsey C. Holmes
MOLA-00004060

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lipman TKD LLC MOLA-00022040
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:07:05 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lipman TKD LLC
MOLA-00022040

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lisa A Hall MOLA-00017704
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 4:58:27 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lisa A Hall
MOLA-00017704

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Little Graduates Preschool and Learning Center MOLA-00006728
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 9:53:46 AM
Attachments: image.png

Little Graduates Preschool and Learning Center
MOLA-00006728

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Little sunshine"s academy MOLA-00004282
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:00:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Little sunshine's academy
MOLA-00004282

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LMB LEARNING Center LLC MOLA-00034387
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 4:04:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

LMB LEARNING Center LLC
MOLA-00034387

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Local Vision LLC MOLA-00023951
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 5:38:42 PM
Attachments: image.png

Local Vision LLC
MOLA-00023951

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LODI REST 3027 LLC MOLA-00032295
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 10:50:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

LODI REST 3027 LLC
MOLA-00032295

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lokhat Physicians Group Llc MOLA-00007260
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 11:54:25 AM
Attachments: image.png

Lokhat Physicians Group Llc
MOLA-00007260

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lolás Tapas Bar MOLA-00036013
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:21:48 AM
Attachments: image.png

Lolas Tapas Bar
MOLA-00036013

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lollipop Recording LLC MOLA-00006030
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:46:36 AM
Attachments: image.png

Lollipop Recording LLC
MOLA-00006030

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - London Logistics & Healthcare LLC MOLA-00013345
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 9:29:05 AM
Attachments: image.png

London Logistics & Healthcare LLC
MOLA-00013345

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lord Ganesh LLC MOLA-00034251
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 6:38:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lord Ganesh LLC
MOLA-00034251

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Love & Care Hair MOLA-00008077
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 8:18:06 AM
Attachments: image.png

Love & Care Hair
MOLA-00008077

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LRC LLC MOLA-00001556
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 2:54:55 PM
Attachments: image.png

LRC LLC
MOLA-00001556

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LUCKY ONE LLC MOLA-00008526
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:13:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

LUCKY ONE LLC
MOLA-00008526

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LUIS AZCONA MOLA-00023312
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 1:00:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

LUIS AZCONA
MOLA-00023312

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LUXI AMERICA INC MOLA-00003144
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 3:55:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

LUXI AMERICA INC
MOLA-00003144

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - M & C DeSIGNS, LLC MOLA-00025964
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 1:31:09 PM
Attachments: image.png

M & C DeSIGNS, LLC
MOLA-00025964

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - M.F.M. DELI CORP MOLA-00019347
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 3:57:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

M.F.M. DELI CORP
MOLA-00019347

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Mac's All Sports Pub Inc MOLA-00024903
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 8:28:29 AM
Attachments: image.png

Mac's All Sports Pub Inc
MOLA-00024903

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MAIN STAR CHINESE RESTAURANT INC MOLA-00006754
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:49:58 PM
Attachments: image.png

MAIN STAR CHINESE RESTAURANT INC
MOLA-00006754

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Malaki Inc MOLA-00013967
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:22:04 AM
Attachments: image.png

Malaki Inc
MOLA-00013967

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Manki Business LLC MOLA-00030338
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:47:02 AM
Attachments: image.png

Manki Business LLC
MOLA-00030338

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - manning brothers interstate llc MOLA-00015416
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 2:43:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

manning brothers interstate llc
MOLA-00015416

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - manning brothers llc MOLA-00015319
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 10:07:07 AM
Attachments: image.png

manning brothers llc
MOLA-00015319

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Marciano Law Office MOLA-00015927
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:56:01 AM
Attachments: image.png

Marciano Law Office
MOLA-00015927

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Marcie Energy Services MOLA-00025895
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 7:06:05 PM
Attachments: image.png

Marcie Energy Services
MOLA-00025895

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Marco's Restaurant Inc MOLA-00014804
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 10:05:57 AM
Attachments: image.png

Marco's Restaurant Inc
MOLA-00014804

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Margaret's Rose, LLC MOLA-00023790
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:14:43 PM
Attachments: image.png

Margaret's Rose, LLC
MOLA-00023790

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Martha Day Care LLC MOLA-00034076
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:44:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Martha Day Care LLC
MOLA-00034076

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ma's Korean Sausages MOLA-00022806
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 12:44:21 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ma's Korean Sausages
MOLA-00022806

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Master Lim's Taekwondo MOLA-00028242
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 6:54:18 PM
Attachments: image.png

Master Lim's Taekwondo
MOLA-00028242

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Maxx Meetings, LLC MOLA-00001721
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 3:15:21 PM
Attachments: image.png

Maxx Meetings, LLC
MOLA-00001721

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Maywood Inn Corporation MOLA-00021144
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 1:08:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Maywood Inn Corporation
MOLA-00021144

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Meals on Wheels of Salem County, Inc. MOLA-00022017
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:16:35 PM
Attachments: image.png

Meals on Wheels of Salem County, Inc.
MOLA-00022017

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - meddings,yvette shushfay MOLA-00010430
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:20:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

meddings,yvette shushfay
MOLA-00010430

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MEDICAL HELPLINE INC MOLA-00012157
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 4:31:00 PM
Attachments: image.png

MEDICAL HELPLINE INC
MOLA-00012157

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Melissa B. Brisman, Esq. LLC MOLA-00004551
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 3:39:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Melissa B. Brisman, Esq. LLC
MOLA-00004551

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Melissa Lawrence dba Paradise Window and Gutter Cleaning MOLA-00035558
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:04:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Melissa Lawrence dba Paradise Window and Gutter Cleaning
MOLA-00035558

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Men Of Fashion LLC MOLA-00009403
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 11:44:31 AM
Attachments: image.png

Men Of Fashion LLC
MOLA-00009403

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Michael G Bonaventure CPA MOLA-00015572
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 3:43:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Michael G Bonaventure CPA
MOLA-00015572

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MicroBeaute, LLC MOLA-00001540
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:20:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

MicroBeaute, LLC
MOLA-00001540

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Miguelinas Bakery Inc MOLA-00028269
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 4:15:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

Miguelinas Bakery Inc
MOLA-00028269

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MILE HIGH 1 LLC MOLA-00035634
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 10:08:45 AM
Attachments: image.png

MILE HIGH 1 LLC
MOLA-00035634

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Milica Vinogradov EA MOLA-00009625
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:21:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

Milica Vinogradov EA
MOLA-00009625

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MiranosLLC MOLA-00011274
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:47:56 PM
Attachments: image.png

MiranosLLC
MOLA-00011274

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MK management MOLA-00005057
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 5:34:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

MK management
MOLA-00005057

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Mola Grill Pizza Corporation MOLA-00028529
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 2:31:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Mola Grill Pizza Corporation
MOLA-00028529

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Molfetta Pizza Inc MOLA-00010785
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 4:03:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Molfetta Pizza Inc
MOLA-00010785

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Mommy Money MOLA-00008159
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:12:40 AM
Attachments: image.png

Mommy Money
MOLA-00008159

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Monarch School of Dance MOLA-00036445
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 5:03:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Monarch School of Dance
MOLA-00036445

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Montgomery Helen Nail INC MOLA-00027990
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 8:28:46 AM
Attachments: image.png

Montgomery Helen Nail INC
MOLA-00027990

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Moretti Electrical Contractors LLC MOLA-00014101
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:11:59 AM
Attachments: image.png

Moretti Electrical Contractors LLC
MOLA-00014101

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Mr tofu house MOLA-00032445
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 8:37:47 AM
Attachments: image.png

Mr tofu house
MOLA-00032445

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not a negative revenue impact as a result of Covid.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Mrmq tax service MOLA-00010496
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:13:21 PM
Attachments: image.png

Mrmq tax service
MOLA-00010496

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MT. FUJI HIBACHI & ASIAN CUISINE, INC. MOLA-00003645
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 10:04:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

MT. FUJI HIBACHI & ASIAN CUISINE, INC.
MOLA-00003645

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Mt. Royal Management, Inc. MOLA-00009574
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 9:52:07 AM
Attachments: image.png

Mt. Royal Management, Inc.
MOLA-00009574

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MUMM, Inc. MOLA-00029300
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 10:52:26 AM
Attachments: image.png

MUMM, Inc.
MOLA-00029300

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nail Stop LLC MOLA-00013654
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 11:56:46 AM
Attachments: image.png

Nail Stop LLC
MOLA-00013654

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - NANCE COMMUNICATIONS LLC MOLA-00026943
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 1:16:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

NANCE COMMUNICATIONS LLC
MOLA-00026943

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nast Partners MOLA-00002358
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 1:29:43 PM
Attachments: image.png

Nast Partners
MOLA-00002358

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned Director of Legal Affairs, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Neasa Ni Dhuill MOLA-00011154
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:29:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Neasa Ni Dhuill
MOLA-00011154

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nell T. Jackson, MA, LPC MOLA-00031423
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:20:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

Nell T. Jackson, MA, LPC
MOLA-00031423

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - new asian mizuki llc MOLA-00011995
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 12:55:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

new asian mizuki llc
MOLA-00011995

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - New Creations Unisex Salon & Spa LLC MOLA-00006155
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 7:02:43 PM
Attachments: image.png

New Creations Unisex Salon & Spa LLC
MOLA-00006155

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - NEW HORIZONS PROPERTY INVESTMENT LLC MOLA-00003107
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:59:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

NEW HORIZONS PROPERTY INVESTMENT LLC
MOLA-00003107

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - New Lease on Life MOLA-00023410
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 6:55:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

New Lease on Life
MOLA-00023410

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - New sushilover llc MOLA-00011526
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 9:11:15 AM
Attachments: image.png

New sushilover llc
MOLA-00011526

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Newark School of the Arts, Inc. MOLA-00023950
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:43:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Newark School of the Arts, Inc.
MOLA-00023950

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nextup LLC MOLA-00016279
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:52:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

Nextup LLC
MOLA-00016279

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nicole Cangialosi MOLA-00031690
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 12:16:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

Nicole Cangialosi
MOLA-00031690

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nitin Corporation MOLA-00004512
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:09:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

Nitin Corporation
MOLA-00004512

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - NJ REPORTERS AND INTERPRETERS, LLC MOLA-00036861
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:51:55 PM
Attachments: image.png

NJ REPORTERS AND INTERPRETERS, LLC
MOLA-00036861

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Oakfair Industrial, Inc. MOLA-00001333
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 6:26:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Oakfair Industrial, Inc.
MOLA-00001333

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.
- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Obscured by Clouds Vape Lounge MOLA-00018190
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 7:10:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Obscured by Clouds Vape Lounge
MOLA-00018190

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ocean Grove Historic Preservation Society MOLA-00019471
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 2:47:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ocean Grove Historic Preservation Society
MOLA-00019471

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ocean Professional Theatre Company MOLA-00010695
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:00:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ocean Professional Theatre Company
MOLA-00010695

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - OHM SUB INC MOLA-00004778
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:22:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

OHM SUB INC
MOLA-00004778

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - OMS Food LLC MOLA-00003612
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:54:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

OMS Food LLC
MOLA-00003612

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Organique nail & spa MOLA-00007235
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:54:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

Organique nail & spa
MOLA-00007235

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Oscar Serrano MOLA-00026608
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 5:50:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

Oscar Serrano
MOLA-00026608

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Oxford Manor LLC MOLA-00032634
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 6:13:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

Oxford Manor LLC
MOLA-00032634

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Palumbo Restaurants Inc. MOLA-00004326
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:04:02 AM
Attachments: image.png

Palumbo Restaurants Inc.
MOLA-00004326

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pamala Diggs MOLA-00020009
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 1:34:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Pamala Diggs
MOLA-00020009

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pamela hoff esq MOLA-00007567
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:01:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

Pamela hoff esq
MOLA-00007567

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Party Perfect Rentals LLC MOLA-00013898
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 9:59:48 AM
Attachments: image.png

Party Perfect Rentals LLC
MOLA-00013898

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pennsauken Panda Inc MOLA-00001655
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:33:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Pennsauken Panda Inc
MOLA-00001655

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Peoples Taxi Service LLC MOLA-00017338
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:55:58 PM
Attachments: image.png

Peoples Taxi Service LLC
MOLA-00017338

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - PermaGraphics, Inc. MOLA-00015128
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 10:33:53 AM
Attachments: image.png

PermaGraphics, Inc.
MOLA-00015128

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Piao Suns nail LLC MOLA-00006002
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:59:40 AM
Attachments: image.png

Piao Suns nail LLC
MOLA-00006002

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pirsiv inc MOLA-00030103
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:53:58 PM
Attachments: image.png

Pirsiv inc
MOLA-00030103

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - PK Fitness LLC MOLA-00017339
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 10:16:21 AM
Attachments: image.png

PK Fitness LLC
MOLA-00017339

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - PLAZA SOLUTIONS CORPORATION MOLA-00004787
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 12:10:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

PLAZA SOLUTIONS CORPORATION
MOLA-00004787

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Polish American World War Veterans Post No 81 NJ Non-profit Corp MOLA-00017187
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:25:48 PM
Attachments: image.png

Polish American World War Veterans Post No 81 NJ Non-profit Corp
MOLA-00017187

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Poppy Gallery LLC MOLA-00018117
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:23:14 AM
Attachments: image.png

Poppy Gallery LLC
MOLA-00018117

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pretty Nails & Spa LLC MOLA-00034678
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 8:07:36 AM
Attachments: image.png

Pretty Nails & Spa LLC
MOLA-00034678

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Printing Copy Center MOLA-00037129
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:22:13 PM
Attachments: image.png

Printing Copy Center
MOLA-00037129

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Maria Fuller
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Profit Marketing Communications, LLC MOLA-00012076
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 4:21:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Profit Marketing Communications, LLC
MOLA-00012076

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Project Hope MOLA-00027386
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 2:40:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Project Hope
MOLA-00027386

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pudel Culinary's Inc MOLA-00014509
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 8:57:06 AM
Attachments: image.png

Pudel Culinary's Inc
MOLA-00014509

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Puerto Rican Unity for Progress MOLA-00026920
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 8:04:34 AM
Attachments: image.png

Puerto Rican Unity for Progress
MOLA-00026920

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pushthru Management LLC MOLA-00003293
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:22:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Pushthru Management LLC
MOLA-00003293

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Q cleaners MOLA-00018214
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 12:31:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

Q cleaners
MOLA-00018214

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Quick ride Transpoation, LLC. MOLA-00004452
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 10:20:18 AM
Attachments: image.png

Quick ride Transpoation, LLC.
MOLA-00004452

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Quintessence Variety Store MOLA-00027997
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 9:09:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

Quintessence Variety Store
MOLA-00027997

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rachy Transport LLC MOLA-00034110
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:59:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rachy Transport LLC
MOLA-00034110

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ragland investing LLC MOLA-00002012
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 8:41:45 AM
Attachments: image.png

Ragland investing LLC
MOLA-00002012

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Railroad Plaza MOLA-00034933
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 6:20:18 PM
Attachments: image.png

Railroad Plaza
MOLA-00034933

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rajpan llc MOLA-00009366
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 12:18:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rajpan llc
MOLA-00009366

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Real Grace Homes MOLA-00012967
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 6:33:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Real Grace Homes
MOLA-00012967

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rebuilding Respect for Women MOLA-00006313
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 12:04:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rebuilding Respect for Women
MOLA-00006313

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Red Carpet Productions Photo Booth MOLA-00013253
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:11:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Red Carpet Productions Photo Booth
MOLA-00013253

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - regal pharmacy llc MOLA-00035750
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:22:17 PM
Attachments: image.png

regal pharmacy llc
MOLA-00035750

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ReLax Collections MOLA-00008573
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 9:03:22 AM
Attachments: image.png

ReLax Collections
MOLA-00008573

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Renee Drumm Independent Agent MOLA-00030826
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:55:09 PM
Attachments: image.png

Renee Drumm Independent Agent
MOLA-00030826

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - RETIRE SMART Consulting, LLC. MOLA-00027103
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 6:50:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

RETIRE SMART Consulting, LLC.
MOLA-00027103

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Riches Realty Group MOLA-00032685
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 3:46:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Riches Realty Group
MOLA-00032685

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ride and Spirits LLC MOLA-00015277
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 9:12:28 AM
Attachments: image.png

Ride and Spirits LLC
MOLA-00015277

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rince O Chroi School of Irish Dance LLC MOLA-00011662
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 12:26:09 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rince O Chroi School of Irish Dance LLC
MOLA-00011662

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Riverfront Renaissance Center for the Arts MOLA-00016002
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 6:28:45 PM
Attachments: image.png

Riverfront Renaissance Center for the Arts
MOLA-00016002

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rk salad llc MOLA-00009543
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 12:26:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rk salad llc
MOLA-00009543

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rocco Films LLC MOLA-00002499
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:08:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rocco Films LLC
MOLA-00002499

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Roll maal LLc MOLA-00016637
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 6:20:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

Roll maal LLc
MOLA-00016637

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rootz LLC MOLA-00025931
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 5:12:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rootz LLC
MOLA-00025931

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Roscoes Wrap IT Up LLC MOLA-00028050
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:32:06 AM
Attachments: image.png

Roscoes Wrap IT Up LLC
MOLA-00028050

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Roth & Merritt, P.C. MOLA-00015028
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:09:46 AM
Attachments: image.png

Roth & Merritt, P.C.
MOLA-00015028

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - RPM Auto Repair and Detailing llc MOLA-00025128
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:37:09 AM
Attachments: image.png

RPM Auto Repair and Detailing llc
MOLA-00025128

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - RQ Floors Corp. MOLA-00019767
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 9:17:55 AM
Attachments: image.png

RQ Floors Corp.
MOLA-00019767

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - RURUP LLC MOLA-00018176
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:49:30 PM
Attachments: image.png

RURUP LLC
MOLA-00018176

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - rutherford junior football association MOLA-00011822
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:38:53 PM
Attachments: image.png

rutherford junior football association
MOLA-00011822

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - RWS & DC, Inc. MOLA-00011742
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:51:44 AM
Attachments: image.png

RWS & DC, Inc.
MOLA-00011742

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - saher afshan MOLA-00027087
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 9:43:16 AM
Attachments: image.png

saher afshan
MOLA-00027087

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Salman Grocery, Inc. MOLA-00022775
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:54:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Salman Grocery, Inc.
MOLA-00022775

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Sara Brummer PT, DPT MOLA-00005658
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 4:38:13 PM
Attachments: image.png

Sara Brummer PT, DPT
MOLA-00005658

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Satyam Group LLC MOLA-00032252
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 4:59:43 PM
Attachments: image.png

Satyam Group LLC
MOLA-00032252

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Sav Seamless Gutters MOLA-00016431
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 5:10:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Sav Seamless Gutters
MOLA-00016431

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SELECT WELLNESS, LLC MOLA-00027648
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:01:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

SELECT WELLNESS, LLC
MOLA-00027648

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Sermsuthee LLC MOLA-00011503
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:15:04 AM
Attachments: image.png

Sermsuthee LLC
MOLA-00011503

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Setola Group LLC MOLA-00007891
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 1:56:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

Setola Group LLC
MOLA-00007891

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SEWNCUTE LLC MOLA-00027721
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 6:02:55 PM
Attachments: image.png

SEWNCUTE LLC
MOLA-00027721

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - She Heals The World MOLA-00032490
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 9:42:58 AM
Attachments: image.png

She Heals The World
MOLA-00032490

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Sheridan's Lodge MOLA-00026614
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:49:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Sheridan's Lodge
MOLA-00026614

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SHIVA Hospitality LLC MOLA-00032458
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 8:08:29 AM
Attachments: image.png

SHIVA Hospitality LLC
MOLA-00032458

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Shore Select Lacrosse MOLA-00036418
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 9:33:03 AM
Attachments: image.png

Shore Select Lacrosse
MOLA-00036418

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business was established after 02/15/20.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Shore Side Enterprises, LLC MOLA-00027933
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:41:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Shore Side Enterprises, LLC
MOLA-00027933

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ShoreBody Training MOLA-00011873
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 3:49:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

ShoreBody Training
MOLA-00011873

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ShoreLLC MOLA-00016275
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:55:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

ShoreLLC
MOLA-00016275

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Shri somnath inc MOLA-00020723
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 11:18:59 AM
Attachments: image.png

Shri somnath inc
MOLA-00020723

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Siesta Massage And Bodywork LLC MOLA-00031291
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 11:35:05 AM
Attachments: image.png

Siesta Massage And Bodywork LLC
MOLA-00031291

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SIM & CHA NAILS LLC MOLA-00028488
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 5:00:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

SIM & CHA NAILS LLC
MOLA-00028488

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SISTERS SWEET SHOPPE LLC MOLA-00008931
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 8:35:49 AM
Attachments: image.png

SISTERS SWEET SHOPPE LLC
MOLA-00008931

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SM Union-Somerset LLC MOLA-00021448
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 11:55:24 AM
Attachments: image.png

SM Union-Somerset LLC
MOLA-00021448

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Smarrito stewart restaurant group llc MOLA-00001014
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 12:56:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Smarrito stewart restaurant group llc
MOLA-00001014

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Smitty's Wick, LLC MOLA-00026725
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 5:17:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Smitty's Wick, LLC
MOLA-00026725

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - So It Is African Market LLC MOLA-00017372
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 2:13:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

So It Is African Market LLC
MOLA-00017372

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - So Mang Barber Shop MOLA-00020068
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 2:32:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

So Mang Barber Shop
MOLA-00020068

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Soap for Sinners MOLA-00006895
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 11:41:52 AM
Attachments: image.png

Soap for Sinners
MOLA-00006895

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SOC Innovations LLC MOLA-00004989
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 5:00:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

SOC Innovations LLC
MOLA-00004989

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Solina Consulting Services LLC MOLA-00027768
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 6:47:54 PM
Attachments: image.png

Solina Consulting Services LLC
MOLA-00027768

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Somerset fitness club MOLA-00001454
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:11:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

Somerset fitness club
MOLA-00001454

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - South Jersey Shamrocks Lacrosse MOLA-00023115
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:05:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

South Jersey Shamrocks Lacrosse
MOLA-00023115

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Spotlight Performance LLC MOLA-00020098
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:07:39 AM
Attachments: image.png

Spotlight Performance LLC
MOLA-00020098

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Starbound Productions MOLA-00026228
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:37:15 AM
Attachments: image.png

Starbound Productions
MOLA-00026228

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Starkey Legal Search LLC MOLA-00017988
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:46:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Starkey Legal Search LLC
MOLA-00017988

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Steele R. Chadwell, Qualified Mediator MOLA-00035089
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 2:18:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Steele R. Chadwell, Qualified Mediator
MOLA-00035089

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Stella's Empanadas and Argentine Grill LLC MOLA-00007372
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:57:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

Stella's Empanadas and Argentine Grill LLC
MOLA-00007372

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - sulhusllc MOLA-00016341
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 4:41:27 PM
Attachments: image.png

sulhusllc
MOLA-00016341

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SUMMIT CONSTRUCTION 2 LLC MOLA-00012480
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 5:02:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

SUMMIT CONSTRUCTION 2 LLC
MOLA-00012480

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Sun J. Kang MOLA-00015433
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 3:27:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Sun J. Kang
MOLA-00015433

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Surfers Supplies LLC MOLA-00018842
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 1:19:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Surfers Supplies LLC
MOLA-00018842

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Susan Wechsler Designs MOLA-00008261
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:57:15 AM
Attachments: image.png

Susan Wechsler Designs
MOLA-00008261

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Sweda Muay Thai Academy LLC MOLA-00019800
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:56:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

Sweda Muay Thai Academy LLC
MOLA-00019800

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - tcb of wayne llc MOLA-00008070
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 9:50:07 AM
Attachments: image.png

tcb of wayne llc
MOLA-00008070

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - TCC Holdings LLC MOLA-00033906
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 8:22:28 AM
Attachments: image.png

TCC Holdings LLC
MOLA-00033906

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Team Creative Production MOLA-00026539
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:34:55 PM
Attachments: image.png

Team Creative Production
MOLA-00026539

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Temple Shalom of Plainfield MOLA-00027586
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 5:23:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Temple Shalom of Plainfield
MOLA-00027586

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tender Years Child Care Inc. MOLA-00021530
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:12:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

Tender Years Child Care Inc.
MOLA-00021530

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tesoro Layna MOLA-00027063
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:13:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Tesoro Layna
MOLA-00027063

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - TGB CONSTRUCTION, INC MOLA-00007697
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 10:40:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

TGB CONSTRUCTION, INC
MOLA-00007697

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - TGD Inc Pizzeria MOLA-00002297
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 10:55:14 AM
Attachments: image.png

TGD Inc Pizzeria
MOLA-00002297

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Better Give Back Foundation, Inc MOLA-00015008
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:34:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Better Give Back Foundation, Inc
MOLA-00015008

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Bumper Guru LLC. MOLA-00026907
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:26:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Bumper Guru LLC.
MOLA-00026907

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The cake platter MOLA-00013173
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 12:05:42 PM
Attachments: image.png

The cake platter
MOLA-00013173

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Chipperry Newark LLC MOLA-00004701
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:50:18 AM
Attachments: image.png

The Chipperry Newark LLC
MOLA-00004701

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Cicero Group LLC MOLA-00014375
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:24:12 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Cicero Group LLC
MOLA-00014375

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Farmhouse Store Princeton MOLA-00017347
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:55:13 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Farmhouse Store Princeton
MOLA-00017347

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Flavor Tour MOLA-00003214
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 11:20:52 AM
Attachments: image.png

The Flavor Tour
MOLA-00003214

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Goldfischer Agency, Inc. MOLA-00022351
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:23:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Goldfischer Agency, Inc.
MOLA-00022351

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - the jewish community center of greater monmouth county MOLA-00009634
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 9:47:27 AM
Attachments: image.png

the jewish community center of greater monmouth county
MOLA-00009634

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Jointure for Community Adult Education, Inc. MOLA-00021898
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 11:56:04 AM
Attachments: image.png

The Jointure for Community Adult Education, Inc.
MOLA-00021898

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Knee Law Firm, LLC MOLA-00018296
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:14:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Knee Law Firm, LLC
MOLA-00018296

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Liner Company, Inc. MOLA-00002473
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:03:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Liner Company, Inc.
MOLA-00002473

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Lucky HoneyBee MOLA-00033656
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:16:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Lucky HoneyBee
MOLA-00033656

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Partnerships for America MOLA-00011252
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:52:13 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Partnerships for America
MOLA-00011252

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Roving Bar LLC MOLA-00029389
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 3:33:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Roving Bar LLC
MOLA-00029389

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The State Theatre Regional Arts Center at New Brunswick, Inc. MOLA-00001469
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:34:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

The State Theatre Regional Arts Center at New Brunswick, Inc.
MOLA-00001469

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Thomas J. Orr, Esq. MOLA-00018641
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:11:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Thomas J. Orr, Esq.
MOLA-00018641

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Timing kitchen llc MOLA-00036464
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 12:00:56 PM
Attachments: image.png

Timing kitchen llc
MOLA-00036464

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tonianne fuoco MOLA-00025888
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 6:49:35 PM
Attachments: image.png

Tonianne fuoco
MOLA-00025888

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Topline Farm LLC MOLA-00000962
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 3:56:09 PM
Attachments: image.png

Topline Farm LLC
MOLA-00000962

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - TOUR STAR INC MOLA-00029035
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 2:48:57 PM
Attachments: image.png

TOUR STAR INC
MOLA-00029035

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - TOWACO PARSDISE NAILS & SPA LLC MOLA-00009249
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 10:09:37 AM
Attachments: image.png

TOWACO PARSDISE NAILS & SPA LLC
MOLA-00009249

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tranquil Resolutions LLC MOLA-00025533
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:12:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

Tranquil Resolutions LLC
MOLA-00025533

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tri-Arc Community Development Corporation MOLA-00025438
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 11:59:40 AM
Attachments: image.png

Tri-Arc Community Development Corporation
MOLA-00025438

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Triforce fitness LLC MOLA-00030822
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 2:35:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

Triforce fitness LLC
MOLA-00030822

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tuans Beauty Salon MOLA-00033027
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:50:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

Tuans Beauty Salon
MOLA-00033027

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - two elite nails MOLA-00032282
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:49:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

two elite nails
MOLA-00032282

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Two River Cleaners LLC. MOLA-00019679
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 2:23:42 PM
Attachments: image.png

Two River Cleaners LLC.
MOLA-00019679

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ty-Linds Gibbons, LLC MOLA-00011068
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 1:16:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ty-Linds Gibbons, LLC
MOLA-00011068

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - uber MOLA-00017880
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:52:18 PM
Attachments: image.png

uber
MOLA-00017880

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Uncle Evans Pizzeria LLC MOLA-00006477
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 9:34:09 AM
Attachments: image.png

Uncle Evans Pizzeria LLC
MOLA-00006477

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - UNI NAILS & SPA LLC MOLA-00023024
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 12:45:27 PM
Attachments: image.png

UNI NAILS & SPA LLC
MOLA-00023024

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - United Matrix Systems Alliance LLC MOLA-00017354
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 7:15:48 PM
Attachments: image.png

United Matrix Systems Alliance LLC
MOLA-00017354

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Urban Herd Media MOLA-00009700
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 8:14:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Urban Herd Media
MOLA-00009700

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Urena cab. Corp MOLA-00023544
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 9:47:55 AM
Attachments: image.png

Urena cab. Corp
MOLA-00023544

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Vaishno Ma Summit Urban Renewal LLC MOLA-00034944
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 4:48:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

Vaishno Ma Summit Urban Renewal LLC
MOLA-00034944

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 17, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Van Note Custom Canvas MOLA-00024599
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 3:24:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

Van Note Custom Canvas
MOLA-00024599

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 18, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - VEA MEDIA GROUP MOLA-00032075
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:15:30 PM
Attachments: image.png

VEA MEDIA GROUP
MOLA-00032075

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Veroluca Photography, LLC MOLA-00020755
Date: Thursday, December 17, 2020 10:26:07 AM
Attachments: image.png

Veroluca Photography, LLC
MOLA-00020755

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - VICTOR CHEVASCO MOLA-00024466
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:29:05 PM
Attachments: image.png

VICTOR CHEVASCO
MOLA-00024466

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - VILLAS FISHING CLUB MOLA-00033770
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 4:16:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

VILLAS FISHING CLUB
MOLA-00033770

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Virtu1m MOLA-00015551
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 1:48:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

Virtu1m
MOLA-00015551

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Vision Empower LLC MOLA-00015368
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 11:33:51 AM
Attachments: image.png

Vision Empower LLC
MOLA-00015368

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - W.O.M.B. Publications MOLA-00024393
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 7:31:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

W.O.M.B. Publications
MOLA-00024393

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Wallace Temple AME Zion MOLA-00028697
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 8:39:15 AM
Attachments: image.png

Wallace Temple AME Zion
MOLA-00028697

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Walton Financial Services, LLC MOLA-00016894
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:37:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

Walton Financial Services, LLC
MOLA-00016894

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Warren Township Car Limousine MOLA-00012125
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 12:41:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Warren Township Car Limousine
MOLA-00012125

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Warwick Wines & Spirits LLC MOLA-00003606
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 12:45:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

Warwick Wines & Spirits LLC
MOLA-00003606

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Wedding Gown Preservation NJ MOLA-00001645
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 12:22:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

Wedding Gown Preservation NJ
MOLA-00001645

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - westfield auto care MOLA-00008683
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:12:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

westfield auto care
MOLA-00008683

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Williams Soccer Performance systems, LLC MOLA-00017853
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 4:55:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

Williams Soccer Performance systems, LLC
MOLA-00017853

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Winsor National Leasing Corp MOLA-00010416
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:11:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

Winsor National Leasing Corp
MOLA-00010416

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - WIRELESS PLAZA INC MOLA-00023822
Date: Thursday, December 10, 2020 4:08:00 PM
Attachments: image.png

WIRELESS PLAZA INC
MOLA-00023822

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - wismick MOLA-00023939
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 2:05:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

wismick
MOLA-00023939

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Witte Consulting Group, LLC MOLA-00007916
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 6:10:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

Witte Consulting Group, LLC
MOLA-00007916

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Woodbury Lodge 2585, Loyal Order of Moose MOLA-00018430
Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 1:05:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

Woodbury Lodge 2585, Loyal Order of Moose
MOLA-00018430

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Write on Sports, Inc. MOLA-00012806
Date: Wednesday, December 9, 2020 12:49:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

Write on Sports, Inc.
MOLA-00012806

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - WWS Power LLC MOLA-00020811
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 1:10:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

WWS Power LLC
MOLA-00020811

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Wyse Training Inc. MOLA-00001183
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 8:18:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Wyse Training Inc.
MOLA-00001183

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - xuan wang MOLA-00004607
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 5:39:23 PM
Attachments: image.png

xuan wang
MOLA-00004607

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Yarden Travel Inc. MOLA-00010257
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 3:44:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

Yarden Travel Inc.
MOLA-00010257

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - YES YOU CAN MARKETING LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY MOLA-00028374
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 12:26:27 PM
Attachments: image.png

YES YOU CAN MARKETING LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY
MOLA-00028374

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Yoga M.A.T.T. LLC MOLA-00011468
Date: Monday, December 7, 2020 12:45:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Yoga M.A.T.T. LLC
MOLA-00011468

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Young and J Fashion MOLA-00011042
Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2020 10:44:14 AM
Attachments: image.png

Young and J Fashion
MOLA-00011042

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Young Men's Christian Association of Garfield MOLA-00028232
Date: Tuesday, December 15, 2020 11:47:27 AM
Attachments: image.png

Young Men's Christian Association of Garfield
MOLA-00028232

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - YOUnite, LLC MOLA-00030207
Date: Friday, December 18, 2020 9:36:23 AM
Attachments: image.png

YOUnite, LLC
MOLA-00030207

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - zahra batool couture MOLA-00015699
Date: Monday, December 14, 2020 3:52:21 PM
Attachments: image.png

zahra batool couture
MOLA-00015699

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ZEN NAIL & SPA INC MOLA-00014046
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:17:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

ZEN NAIL & SPA INC
MOLA-00014046

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Zenneth Manor Inn LLC MOLA-00007399
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 1:52:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Zenneth Manor Inn LLC
MOLA-00007399

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - zoilas kitchen MOLA-00015909
Date: Wednesday, December 16, 2020 2:51:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

zoilas kitchen
MOLA-00015909

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 5 Sons LLC MOLA-00029547
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 4:21:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

5 Sons LLC
MOLA-00029547

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Maria Fuller
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 7 Eleven MOLA-00009461
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 11:35:34 AM
Attachments: image.png

7 Eleven
MOLA-00009461

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 17, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 808Dreams MOLA-00019631
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 10:08:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

808Dreams
MOLA-00019631

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A & P real Estate LLC MOLA-00036037
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:35:35 PM
Attachments: image.png

A & P real Estate LLC
MOLA-00036037

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A Brighter Tomorrow Wellness Center MOLA-00029010
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 3:39:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

A Brighter Tomorrow Wellness Center
MOLA-00029010

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A Life That Fits, LLC MOLA-00016931
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:52:54 PM
Attachments: image.png

A Life That Fits, LLC
MOLA-00016931

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - A Reputable Transportation Service LLC MOLA-00016659
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 3:30:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

A Reputable Transportation Service LLC
MOLA-00016659

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - AB Creative, Inc MOLA-00014284
Date: Thursday, December 24, 2020 9:09:09 AM
Attachments: image.png

AB Creative, Inc
MOLA-00014284

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.
- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Abound Global Industries, LLC MOLA-00027729
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 11:56:04 AM
Attachments: image.png

Abound Global Industries, LLC
MOLA-00027729

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 20, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Abrecea Martial Arts & Fitness LLC MOLA-00004633
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 5:44:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

Abrecea Martial Arts & Fitness LLC
MOLA-00004633

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Academy of Japanese karate MOLA-00002943
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:42:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

Academy of Japanese karate
MOLA-00002943

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Accountants Online LLC MOLA-00014267
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 12:24:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Accountants Online LLC
MOLA-00014267

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Adath Shalom MOLA-00022100
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:06:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

Adath Shalom
MOLA-00022100

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you are a not-for-profit engaged in religious activities that would be paid for with grant funds.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ads & Mark MOLA-00004541
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:41:30 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ads & Mark
MOLA-00004541

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Airam Carpet MOLA-00034729
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 12:22:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Airam Carpet
MOLA-00034729

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Maria Fuller
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Alex sky llc MOLA-00024344
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 4:21:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

Alex sky llc
MOLA-00024344

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - AMBO Consulting LLC MOLA-00017223
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:02:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

AMBO Consulting LLC
MOLA-00017223

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Amelias Restaurant LLC MOLA-00024762
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 12:15:24 PM
Attachments: image.png

Amelias Restaurant LLC
MOLA-00024762

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Andrew Vickers MOLA-00000868
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:43:25 PM
Attachments: image.png

Andrew Vickers
MOLA-00000868

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Aprotour LLC MOLA-00024331
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 8:11:51 AM
Attachments: image.png

Aprotour LLC
MOLA-00024331

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Arys Daycare LLC MOLA-00036639
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 1:28:42 PM
Attachments: image.png

Arys Daycare LLC
MOLA-00036639

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ASHLEY TRANSPORTATION LLC MOLA-00013300
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 1:32:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

ASHLEY TRANSPORTATION LLC
MOLA-00013300

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Axel RE Services LLC MOLA-00030533
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:29:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

Axel RE Services LLC
MOLA-00030533

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BeautifulVee MOLA-00026167
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:34:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

BeautifulVee
MOLA-00026167

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Betty Cleaners CHA's LLC MOLA-00005135
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 10:39:46 AM
Attachments: image.png

Betty Cleaners CHA's LLC
MOLA-00005135

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Beyond Linen Rentals, LLC MOLA-00004939
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:45:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

Beyond Linen Rentals, LLC
MOLA-00004939

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BeYoutiful Creations MOLA-00003693
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 3:43:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

BeYoutiful Creations
MOLA-00003693

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bridle Corp MOLA-00028161
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 4:50:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bridle Corp
MOLA-00028161

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Cammie's Spectacular Salon MOLA-00012816
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 2:09:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Cammie's Spectacular Salon
MOLA-00012816

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - chapter one farms equine retirement, inc. MOLA-00026987
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 4:25:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

chapter one farms equine retirement, inc.
MOLA-00026987

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Coherent Math Consulting MOLA-00003735
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 3:19:33 PM
Attachments: image.png

Coherent Math Consulting
MOLA-00003735

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 18, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Congregation Pirchei Shoshanim MOLA-00004843
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 1:34:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

Congregation Pirchei Shoshanim
MOLA-00004843

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 19, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you are a not-for-profit engaged in religious activities that would be paid for with grant funds.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Couture Travel Lounge LLC MOLA-00024302
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 9:00:29 AM
Attachments: image.png

Couture Travel Lounge LLC
MOLA-00024302

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Crave 43 LLC MOLA-00033454
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 10:42:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

Crave 43 LLC
MOLA-00033454

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - cupo llc MOLA-00009660
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 4:48:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

cupo llc
MOLA-00009660

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Deb Nicholas Events LLC MOLA-00018759
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 8:14:14 AM
Attachments: image.png

Deb Nicholas Events LLC
MOLA-00018759

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Digna Santos MOLA-00031803
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 11:28:26 AM
Attachments: image.png

Digna Santos
MOLA-00031803

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dino's Pizza & Subs LLC MOLA-00013183
Date: Thursday, December 24, 2020 8:55:52 AM
Attachments: image.png

Dino's Pizza & Subs LLC
MOLA-00013183

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Dynamic Sound Installations MOLA-00020292
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 2:27:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Dynamic Sound Installations
MOLA-00020292

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - EAST TRAVEL WORLD LLC MOLA-00016901
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 5:41:06 PM
Attachments: image.png

EAST TRAVEL WORLD LLC
MOLA-00016901

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Elizabeth Hagan & Assoc LLC MOLA-00012469
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 10:20:35 AM
Attachments: image.png

Elizabeth Hagan & Assoc LLC
MOLA-00012469

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - EuOrdita LLC MOLA-00004918
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:47:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

EuOrdita LLC
MOLA-00004918

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - FUNNYBOOKS Comics & Stuff MOLA-00017703
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 4:39:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

FUNNYBOOKS Comics & Stuff
MOLA-00017703

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 17, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gabardine MOLA-00025192
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 4:48:55 PM
Attachments: image.png

Gabardine
MOLA-00025192

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - GAM JIMMY SALON CORP MOLA-00032486
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 4:02:06 PM
Attachments: image.png

GAM JIMMY SALON CORP
MOLA-00032486

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business was established after 2/15/2020

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gen Pro Services LLC MOLA-00013953
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:48:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

Gen Pro Services LLC
MOLA-00013953

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ghana 4E, Inc. MOLA-00034747
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 8:40:56 AM
Attachments: image.png

Ghana 4E, Inc.
MOLA-00034747

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Maria Fuller
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - GMiranda Enterprises LLC MOLA-00011277
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 3:18:30 PM
Attachments: image.png

GMiranda Enterprises LLC
MOLA-00011277

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - GMS Properties LLC MOLA-00017057
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 11:36:23 AM
Attachments: image.png

GMS Properties LLC
MOLA-00017057

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - golden ladder llc MOLA-00024079
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 1:31:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

golden ladder llc
MOLA-00024079

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Grace Lutheran Church of River Edge NJ MOLA-00035743
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 6:02:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Grace Lutheran Church of River Edge NJ
MOLA-00035743

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Grails LLC MOLA-00009247
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 5:13:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

Grails LLC
MOLA-00009247

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 05, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Happy Feet MOLA-00030306
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 11:49:29 AM
Attachments: image.png

Happy Feet
MOLA-00030306

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Healing Training LLC MOLA-00025186
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 9:43:10 AM
Attachments: image.png

Healing Training LLC
MOLA-00025186

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hilda B Ferro MOLA-00032048
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 8:43:07 AM
Attachments: image.png

Hilda B Ferro
MOLA-00032048

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hugh J. Gilmartin, Jr. MOLA-00028821
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 4:58:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hugh J. Gilmartin, Jr.
MOLA-00028821

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hutch21 MOLA-00017074
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 4:56:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

Hutch21
MOLA-00017074

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ian's Bridal Shop MOLA-00027976
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 11:46:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

Ian's Bridal Shop
MOLA-00027976

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Image Nail Salon MOLA-00016963
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 3:36:32 PM
Attachments: image.png

Image Nail Salon
MOLA-00016963

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Imperial Management Group, IMG MOLA-00024329
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:13:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

Imperial Management Group, IMG
MOLA-00024329

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - INDIGO STATION LLC MOLA-00017559
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 4:34:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

INDIGO STATION LLC
MOLA-00017559

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Infinity One Logistics LLC MOLA-00016909
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 1:52:04 PM
Attachments: image.png

Infinity One Logistics LLC
MOLA-00016909

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - INNOAS INC MOLA-00011928
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 4:53:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

INNOAS INC
MOLA-00011928

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Institute Integrative Wellness MOLA-00016790
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 3:54:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

Institute Integrative Wellness
MOLA-00016790

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - J&H OASIS NAILS INC. MOLA-00022727
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 1:09:23 PM
Attachments: image.png

J&H OASIS NAILS INC.
MOLA-00022727

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jacob Properties LLC MOLA-00015410
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 3:24:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Jacob Properties LLC
MOLA-00015410

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JBL Travel Group LLC MOLA-00019918
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 9:02:11 AM
Attachments: image.png

JBL Travel Group LLC
MOLA-00019918

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JEFFREY E STULL MOLA-00025864
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:25:31 PM
Attachments: image.png

JEFFREY E STULL
MOLA-00025864

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JJ TAVAREZ EXPRESS LLC MOLA-00023042
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 9:53:32 AM
Attachments: image.png

JJ TAVAREZ EXPRESS LLC
MOLA-00023042

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.
- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business is an ineligible business type (e.g. adult activities, nuisance, transient merchant, etc.).

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Jodi Torres MOLA-00027099
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 5:46:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

Jodi Torres
MOLA-00027099

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 05, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JOONHO CHANG MOLA-00017562
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 5:06:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

JOONHO CHANG
MOLA-00017562

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JPR Solutions LLC MOLA-00031687
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 12:45:30 PM
Attachments: image.png

JPR Solutions LLC
MOLA-00031687

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Just Ball Academy LLC MOLA-00023655
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 3:58:28 PM
Attachments: image.png

Just Ball Academy LLC
MOLA-00023655

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - KCW Holdings LLC MOLA-00001186
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 4:00:42 PM
Attachments: image.png

KCW Holdings LLC
MOLA-00001186

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - kenneth doremus MOLA-00019265
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 12:28:39 PM
Attachments: image.png

kenneth doremus
MOLA-00019265

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - L.A. Express MOLA-00014060
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 8:55:17 AM
Attachments: image.png

L.A. Express
MOLA-00014060

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - L.E.M Construction LLC MOLA-00035722
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 8:50:14 AM
Attachments: image.png

L.E.M Construction LLC
MOLA-00035722

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Larrys mobile vehicle service llc MOLA-00011217
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 9:32:31 AM
Attachments: image.png

Larrys mobile vehicle service llc
MOLA-00011217

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lauren Zehner LCSW MOLA-00010975
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 7:25:17 AM
Attachments: image.png

Lauren Zehner LCSW
MOLA-00010975

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lil's Barber Shop MOLA-00023578
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 1:00:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lil's Barber Shop
MOLA-00023578

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Little Friends Academy MOLA-00001040
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 1:07:14 PM
Attachments: image.png

Little Friends Academy
MOLA-00001040

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lucille Conzo MOLA-00012750
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 1:05:45 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lucille Conzo
MOLA-00012750

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - M3 Multiservices Inc MOLA-00028539
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 1:18:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

M3 Multiservices Inc
MOLA-00028539

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Maryann Bianciella-Thomas, LLC MOLA-00026752
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 9:41:24 AM
Attachments: image.png

Maryann Bianciella-Thomas, LLC
MOLA-00026752

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Metuchen Area Chamber of Commerce MOLA-00016296
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 3:11:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

Metuchen Area Chamber of Commerce
MOLA-00016296

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Michael Bannach MOLA-00014286
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 10:25:12 AM
Attachments: image.png

Michael Bannach
MOLA-00014286

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MIDDLESEX COUNTY STEM CHARTER SCHOOL A NJ NONPROFIT CORPORATION MOLA-00005950
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 3:03:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

MIDDLESEX COUNTY STEM CHARTER SCHOOL A NJ NONPROFIT CORPORATION
MOLA-00005950

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ming wang LLC MOLA-00008216
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 6:07:41 PM
Attachments: image.png

ming wang LLC
MOLA-00008216

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Mother Birth Yoga LLC MOLA-00012590
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 9:24:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

Mother Birth Yoga LLC
MOLA-00012590

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nabil Gift Shop LLC MOLA-00014370
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 8:16:54 AM
Attachments: image.png

Nabil Gift Shop LLC
MOLA-00014370

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - nalan couture llc MOLA-00012534
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 2:30:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

nalan couture llc
MOLA-00012534

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Neoneur LLC MOLA-00034651
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 6:46:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

Neoneur LLC
MOLA-00034651

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - NEW HAPPY NAILS INC MOLA-00005762
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 3:44:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

NEW HAPPY NAILS INC
MOLA-00005762

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - New Jersey Writer, LLC MOLA-00021043
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 9:29:22 AM
Attachments: image.png

New Jersey Writer, LLC
MOLA-00021043

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Newark Wire Works Inc MOLA-00008615
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 10:13:06 AM
Attachments: image.png

Newark Wire Works Inc
MOLA-00008615

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - nidhal hamdi MOLA-00019929
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 3:13:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

nidhal hamdi
MOLA-00019929

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - O B Wan LLC MOLA-00035653
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 6:17:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

O B Wan LLC
MOLA-00035653

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 19, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - OFF THE HANGER MOLA-00001015
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 1:36:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

OFF THE HANGER
MOLA-00001015

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Performix Entertainment MOLA-00002886
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 11:02:01 AM
Attachments: image.png

Performix Entertainment
MOLA-00002886

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - peter larsson MOLA-00024183
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 12:18:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

peter larsson
MOLA-00024183

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Piedra&Piedra Inc MOLA-00017546
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 2:24:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

Piedra&Piedra Inc
MOLA-00017546

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Prestige brandz llc MOLA-00004407
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 3:13:42 PM
Attachments: image.png

Prestige brandz llc
MOLA-00004407

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Prestige Nails Of Brunswick LLC MOLA-00034616
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 8:12:42 AM
Attachments: image.png

Prestige Nails Of Brunswick LLC
MOLA-00034616

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Prime Taekwondo LLC MOLA-00002710
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 2:49:40 PM
Attachments: image.png

Prime Taekwondo LLC
MOLA-00002710

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - PRK Contractors LLC MOLA-00025249
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 1:46:57 PM
Attachments: image.png

PRK Contractors LLC
MOLA-00025249

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Queen Black and Beauty Supply MOLA-00001182
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 3:56:37 PM
Attachments: image.png

Queen Black and Beauty Supply
MOLA-00001182

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Raritan River Concerts, Inc. MOLA-00025083
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 12:56:47 PM
Attachments: image.png

Raritan River Concerts, Inc.
MOLA-00025083

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Realign Design LLC MOLA-00011448
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 9:34:42 AM
Attachments: image.png

Realign Design LLC
MOLA-00011448

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Regal Salons, LLC dba SUPERCUT MOLA-00001358
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 6:14:57 PM
Attachments: image.png

Regal Salons, LLC dba SUPERCUT
MOLA-00001358

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Renaissance Business Solutions, LLC MOLA-00001467
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 1:02:53 PM
Attachments: image.png

Renaissance Business Solutions, LLC
MOLA-00001467

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Roots & Wings Mindfulness MOLA-00036571
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 1:47:17 PM
Attachments: image.png

Roots & Wings Mindfulness
MOLA-00036571

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Royal Tuxedo Wholesale LLC MOLA-00001455
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 4:46:13 PM
Attachments: image.png

Royal Tuxedo Wholesale LLC
MOLA-00001455

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rudisha Group LLC MOLA-00008123
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 6:53:45 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rudisha Group LLC
MOLA-00008123

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ryan Tajerian MOLA-00033262
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 9:29:48 AM
Attachments: image.png

Ryan Tajerian
MOLA-00033262

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Sarey Consulting, LLC MOLA-00007201
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 6:56:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

Sarey Consulting, LLC
MOLA-00007201

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Epps-Jordan

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Shanti Path Yoga, LLC MOLA-00016958
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 4:06:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

Shanti Path Yoga, LLC
MOLA-00016958

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Shreeji Krupa Realty LLC MOLA-00028627
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 2:32:49 PM
Attachments: image.png

Shreeji Krupa Realty LLC
MOLA-00028627

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SIMHA MLK JOINT VENTURE LLC MOLA-00020300
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:12:13 PM
Attachments: image.png

SIMHA MLK JOINT VENTURE LLC
MOLA-00020300

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SM AND SK SERVICES LLC MOLA-00018179
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 2:06:53 PM
Attachments: image.png

SM AND SK SERVICES LLC
MOLA-00018179

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SMARTGEAR INC MOLA-00020228
Date: Tuesday, January 5, 2021 9:45:34 AM
Attachments: image.png

SMARTGEAR INC
MOLA-00020228

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Smokehouse burgers and BBQ MOLA-00004436
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 12:26:14 PM
Attachments: image.png

Smokehouse burgers and BBQ
MOLA-00004436

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Petra Glenn

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Society One LLC MOLA-00011126
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:36:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

Society One LLC
MOLA-00011126

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Speech Learners llc MOLA-00024333
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:51:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Speech Learners llc
MOLA-00024333

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SPIRIT PERFORMING ARTS INC MOLA-00024862
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:40:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

SPIRIT PERFORMING ARTS INC
MOLA-00024862

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - St. Peter's Episcopal Church MOLA-00027221
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 5:00:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

St. Peter's Episcopal Church
MOLA-00027221

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Steeltap International, LLC. MOLA-00027429
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 9:16:09 AM
Attachments: image.png

Steeltap International, LLC.
MOLA-00027429

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Studio at Glen Gables MOLA-00033683
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 10:36:37 AM
Attachments: image.png

Studio at Glen Gables
MOLA-00033683

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SUNNY NAIL & SPA INC MOLA-00012963
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 4:27:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

SUNNY NAIL & SPA INC
MOLA-00012963

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Team Management 2000 Inc MOLA-00012822
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 4:46:23 PM
Attachments: image.png

Team Management 2000 Inc
MOLA-00012822

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The Alternative Press of Berkeley Heights MOLA-00002649
Date: Wednesday, December 30, 2020 3:03:08 PM
Attachments: image.png

The Alternative Press of Berkeley Heights
MOLA-00002649

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - The DigiVac Company MOLA-00022522
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 10:23:12 AM
Attachments: image.png

The DigiVac Company
MOLA-00022522

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - the jewellery expo llc MOLA-00022106
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 12:59:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

the jewellery expo llc
MOLA-00022106

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Theodora Boyadjis Designs, LLC MOLA-00036188
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 3:58:59 PM
Attachments: image.png

Theodora Boyadjis Designs, LLC
MOLA-00036188

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Maria Fuller
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tim Zhu MOLA-00034103
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:35:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Tim Zhu
MOLA-00034103

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kevin Lacey
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - TNV'S & Associates LLC MOLA-00030058
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 1:42:20 PM
Attachments: image.png

TNV'S & Associates LLC
MOLA-00030058

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Touch the World, Inc MOLA-00014987
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 7:44:58 AM
Attachments: image.png

Touch the World, Inc
MOLA-00014987

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you are a not-for-profit engaged in religious activities that would be paid for with grant funds.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Tribe Entertainment LLC MOLA-00014121
Date: Monday, January 4, 2021 11:23:37 AM
Attachments: image.png

Tribe Entertainment LLC
MOLA-00014121

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Trinity Brand LLC MOLA-00033228
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 4:58:17 PM
Attachments: image.png

Trinity Brand LLC
MOLA-00033228

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - TTIG LLC MOLA-00032689
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 7:04:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

TTIG LLC
MOLA-00032689

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Uche Akpa MOLA-00004186
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 5:25:52 PM
Attachments: image.png

Uche Akpa
MOLA-00004186

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kamana Misra

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - United cleaning services MOLA-00024962
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 1:04:44 PM
Attachments: image.png

United cleaning services
MOLA-00024962

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - V & R Kingdom Cleaning, LLC MOLA-00017672
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 11:37:52 AM
Attachments: image.png

V & R Kingdom Cleaning, LLC
MOLA-00017672

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Vip star nails llc MOLA-00004857
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 1:08:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

Vip star nails llc
MOLA-00004857

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business was established after 2/15/20.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - VIR Consulting Corp MOLA-00035622
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 11:56:20 AM
Attachments: image.png

VIR Consulting Corp
MOLA-00035622

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Voltarelli Properties MOLA-00012249
Date: Tuesday, January 5, 2021 9:47:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

Voltarelli Properties
MOLA-00012249

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jacqueline Clemons
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - VW Booth Bus LLC MOLA-00029315
Date: Tuesday, December 29, 2020 12:53:50 PM
Attachments: image.png

VW Booth Bus LLC
MOLA-00029315

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - West Point Training MOLA-00022543
Date: Wednesday, December 23, 2020 10:54:53 AM
Attachments: image.png

West Point Training
MOLA-00022543

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Wire Mesh Sculptures by Bonnie Shanas MOLA-00035611
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 3:57:40 PM
Attachments: image.png

Wire Mesh Sculptures by Bonnie Shanas
MOLA-00035611

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Maria Fuller
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Your Friends General Construction MOLA-00029144
Date: Monday, December 28, 2020 4:27:11 PM
Attachments: image.png

Your Friends General Construction
MOLA-00029144

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Youthful Voices Theatre Company MOLA-00015942
Date: Monday, December 21, 2020 2:36:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

Youthful Voices Theatre Company
MOLA-00015942

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Petra Glenn
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Zookey LLC MOLA-00025393
Date: Tuesday, December 22, 2020 4:22:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

Zookey LLC
MOLA-00025393

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MOUNTAIN LANDSCAPE CONTRACTORS, INC MOLA-00029001
Date: Monday, January 25, 2021 3:02:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

MOUNTAIN LANDSCAPE CONTRACTORS, INC
MOLA-00029001

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Oxford Manor LLC MOLA-00032634
Date: Friday, January 29, 2021 4:47:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

Oxford Manor LLC
MOLA-00032634

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Superior Arts Institute MOLA-00029725
Date: Tuesday, January 26, 2021 11:41:58 AM
Attachments: image.png

Superior Arts Institute
MOLA-00029725

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - G A L C Corporation MOLA-00028475
Date: Tuesday, February 9, 2021 6:49:58 PM
Attachments: image.png

G A L C Corporation
MOLA-00028475

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - MOUNTAIN LANDSCAPE CONTRACTORS, INC MOLA-00029001
Date: Monday, January 25, 2021 3:02:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

MOUNTAIN LANDSCAPE CONTRACTORS, INC
MOLA-00029001

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Oxford Manor LLC MOLA-00032634
Date: Friday, January 29, 2021 4:47:16 PM
Attachments: image.png

Oxford Manor LLC
MOLA-00032634

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Superior Arts Institute MOLA-00029725
Date: Tuesday, January 26, 2021 11:41:58 AM
Attachments: image.png

Superior Arts Institute
MOLA-00029725

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ultra Artists LLC MOLA-00036470
Date: Wednesday, February 10, 2021 1:53:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Ultra Artists LLC
MOLA-00036470

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 1099 Independent Contractor for UBER LYFT - Driver MOLA-00031966
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:17:35 AM
Attachments: image.png

1099 Independent Contractor for UBER LYFT - Driver
MOLA-00031966

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - ABBA Medical Transportation MOLA-00027877
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 8:52:16 AM
Attachments: image.png

ABBA Medical Transportation
MOLA-00027877

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because at the time of application your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ James Sumption
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Abel HR, Inc. MOLA-00027836
Date: Tuesday, March 9, 2021 3:17:10 PM
Attachments: image.png

Abel HR, Inc.
MOLA-00027836

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - AW CONTRACTING inc MOLA-00001506
Date: Tuesday, March 9, 2021 3:08:17 PM
Attachments: image.png

AW CONTRACTING inc
MOLA-00001506

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bleach A Salon by the Sea LLC. MOLA-00023495
Date: Tuesday, March 9, 2021 3:12:01 PM
Attachments: image.png

Bleach A Salon by the Sea LLC.
MOLA-00023495

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CW Riverdale LLC MOLA-00027588
Date: Tuesday, March 9, 2021 2:38:00 PM
Attachments: image.png

CW Riverdale LLC
MOLA-00027588

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Element of Nature MOLA-00013011
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:02:12 AM
Attachments: image.png

Element of Nature
MOLA-00013011

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 18, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Holly Street Music LLC MOLA-00018624
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:06:01 AM
Attachments: image.png

Holly Street Music LLC
MOLA-00018624

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - iplay america MOLA-00018045
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:14:44 AM
Attachments: image.png

iplay america
MOLA-00018045

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you have more than 50 Full Time Equivalent employees.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - IPR Capital LLC MOLA-00003712
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:00:20 AM
Attachments: image.png

IPR Capital LLC
MOLA-00003712

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.
- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you reached the maximum funds for your unmet need.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Chloe Hamilton
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Mountainview Caterers, Inc. MOLA-00011724
Date: Tuesday, March 9, 2021 3:18:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

Mountainview Caterers, Inc.
MOLA-00011724

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Nikkisnips LLC MOLA-00005276
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:26:42 AM
Attachments: image.png

Nikkisnips LLC
MOLA-00005276

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - RaysEntourageMusic MOLA-00013727
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:23:48 AM
Attachments: image.png

RaysEntourageMusic
MOLA-00013727

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.
- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your annual revenue is less than the amount of grant funds you already received.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Route 22 Limousine Corp. MOLA-00034452
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:21:31 AM
Attachments: image.png

Route 22 Limousine Corp.
MOLA-00034452

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 07, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because the Appeal Window Passed.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Small Discoveries Preschool LLC MOLA-00026577
Date: Tuesday, March 9, 2021 3:15:06 PM
Attachments: image.png

Small Discoveries Preschool LLC
MOLA-00026577

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - T&F Drugs Inc. MOLA-00027192
Date: Friday, March 12, 2021 9:25:21 AM
Attachments: image.png

T&F Drugs Inc.
MOLA-00027192

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you have more than 50 Full Time Equivalent employees.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Linette Commisso
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Creative Castle Nursery School, LLC MOLA-00017981
Date: Wednesday, March 17, 2021 2:41:38 PM
Attachments: image.png

Creative Castle Nursery School, LLC
MOLA-00017981

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Hagit Dror and William Forshee Partnership MOLA-00030710
Date: Wednesday, March 17, 2021 9:55:15 AM
Attachments: image.png

Hagit Dror and William Forshee Partnership
MOLA-00030710

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler

Hearing Officer

Approved by:

/s/ Kim Ehrlich

Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - INO Contractors LLC MOLA-00030419
Date: Tuesday, March 16, 2021 4:02:18 PM
Attachments: image.png

INO Contractors LLC
MOLA-00030419

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Iron Republik LLC MOLA-00010278
Date: Wednesday, March 31, 2021 5:09:22 PM
Attachments: image.png

Iron Republik LLC
MOLA-00010278

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 03, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Kabab King LLC MOLA-00006758
Date: Wednesday, March 31, 2021 5:24:55 PM
Attachments: image.png

Kabab King LLC
MOLA-00006758

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - SINCLAIR, DANIEL L MOLA-00005629
Date: Monday, April 5, 2021 9:47:43 AM
Attachments: image.png

SINCLAIR, DANIEL L
MOLA-00005629

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - uwish industries llc MOLA-00019122
Date: Wednesday, March 31, 2021 5:16:15 PM
Attachments: image.png

uwish industries llc
MOLA-00019122

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jan 31, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Wellness Counseling Services LLC MOLA-00036907
Date: Wednesday, March 31, 2021 4:59:56 PM
Attachments: image.png

Wellness Counseling Services LLC
MOLA-00036907

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Maria Fuller
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Airport Plaza Barbers MOLA-00003794
Date: Monday, April 26, 2021 4:50:18 PM
Attachments: image.png

Airport Plaza Barbers
MOLA-00003794

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 17, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not a negative revenue impact as a result of Covid.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - BLACKCAR LUXURY LIMO L.L.C. MOLA-00024354
Date: Monday, April 26, 2021 4:55:26 PM
Attachments: image.png

BLACKCAR LUXURY LIMO L.L.C.
MOLA-00024354

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business was in existence and operation after 2/15/2020.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Chemis LLC MOLA-00033685
Date: Monday, April 26, 2021 5:01:51 PM
Attachments: image.png

Chemis LLC
MOLA-00033685

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Gattinelli bros MOLA-00027420
Date: Thursday, April 29, 2021 2:45:19 PM
Attachments: image.png

Gattinelli bros
MOLA-00027420

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jan 28, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - JUMANA LLC MOLA-00014187
Date: Thursday, April 29, 2021 4:00:18 PM
Attachments: image.png

JUMANA LLC
MOLA-00014187

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 19, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - PANTRY FARM FOOD STORE MOLA-00006848
Date: Thursday, April 29, 2021 3:55:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

PANTRY FARM FOOD STORE
MOLA-00006848

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jan 28, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - 6764B GREBOW PLAZA MOLA-00011737
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:11:25 AM
Attachments: image.png

6764B GREBOW PLAZA
MOLA-00011737

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Allied Partner Installation LLC MOLA-00032690
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:23:50 AM
Attachments: image.png

Allied Partner Installation LLC
MOLA-00032690

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Animal Outreach of Cape May County MOLA-00015609
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:40:20 AM
Attachments: image.png

Animal Outreach of Cape May County
MOLA-00015609

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bianconero Enterprises Inc MOLA-00032142
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:20:37 AM
Attachments: image.png

Bianconero Enterprises Inc
MOLA-00032142

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Bre wilfong MOLA-00032821
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 9:15:12 AM
Attachments: image.png

Bre wilfong
MOLA-00032821

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Brick By Brick Barbell LLC MOLA-00036185
Date: Tuesday, May 25, 2021 1:47:03 PM
Attachments: image.png

Brick By Brick Barbell LLC
MOLA-00036185

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CB SERVICES AND PROMOTIONS LLC MOLA-00033297
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 9:35:51 AM
Attachments: image.png

CB SERVICES AND PROMOTIONS LLC
MOLA-00033297

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Charles O'Connor
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - CHRAI ASSOCIATES, INC. MOLA-00033424
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 5:23:40 PM
Attachments: image.png

CHRAI ASSOCIATES, INC.
MOLA-00033424

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Create An Impression MOLA-00028046
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:42:19 AM
Attachments: image.png

Create An Impression
MOLA-00028046

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - EdMission Possible, LLC MOLA-00030345
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 9:27:14 AM
Attachments: image.png

EdMission Possible, LLC
MOLA-00030345

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Fast interstate transport llc MOLA-00013218
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 4:22:46 PM
Attachments: image.png

Fast interstate transport llc
MOLA-00013218

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Finest Clipz LLC MOLA-00024048
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 9:46:53 AM
Attachments: image.png

Finest Clipz LLC
MOLA-00024048

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - GlamStop MOLA-00005931
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 5:24:36 PM
Attachments: image.png

GlamStop
MOLA-00005931

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Go Get After It LLC MOLA-00012224
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:51:28 AM
Attachments: image.png

Go Get After It LLC
MOLA-00012224

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Griffys Organics LLC. MOLA-00020426
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 5:28:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Griffys Organics LLC.
MOLA-00020426

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Harmony Party Rental LLC MOLA-00036211
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 9:27:31 AM
Attachments: image.png

Harmony Party Rental LLC
MOLA-00036211

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Johnathan Dao Phung Holding Limited Liability Company MOLA-00035840
Date: Tuesday, May 25, 2021 2:37:34 PM
Attachments: image.png

Johnathan Dao Phung Holding Limited Liability Company
MOLA-00035840

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jan 29, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - LA Lodinail MOLA-00025561
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 9:32:53 AM
Attachments: image.png

LA Lodinail
MOLA-00025561

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Aaron George
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Lakhani Associates, LLC MOLA-00002280
Date: Tuesday, May 25, 2021 3:36:27 PM
Attachments: image.png

Lakhani Associates, LLC
MOLA-00002280

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because at the time of application your account has been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kamana Misra
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - NE PLUS ULTRA MOLA-00018682
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:30:23 AM
Attachments: image.png

NE PLUS ULTRA
MOLA-00018682

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - New Frontier Marketing Associates, LLC MOLA-00015481
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:37:24 AM
Attachments: image.png

New Frontier Marketing Associates, LLC
MOLA-00015481

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - NMBR5M, LLC MOLA-00009911
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 5:12:07 PM
Attachments: image.png

NMBR5M, LLC
MOLA-00009911

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pesos Consulting Corp MOLA-00022977
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 9:55:33 AM
Attachments: image.png

Pesos Consulting Corp
MOLA-00022977

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Ponzios Kingsway Diner Inc MOLA-00007161
Date: Thursday, June 3, 2021 6:53:45 AM
Attachments: image.png

Ponzios Kingsway Diner Inc
MOLA-00007161

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because you have more than 50 Full Time Equivalent employees.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Sherina Lucas
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Pro Classic Painting LLC MOLA-00030451
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:15:01 AM
Attachments: image.png

Pro Classic Painting LLC
MOLA-00030451

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 04, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Raval LLC MOLA-00021303
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 10:49:14 AM
Attachments: image.png

Raval LLC
MOLA-00021303

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karen Farrior
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Robert Lorino DMD LLC MOLA-00013031
Date: Tuesday, May 25, 2021 11:18:44 AM
Attachments: image.png

Robert Lorino DMD LLC
MOLA-00013031

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 02, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brooke Kessler
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Rockaway lanes, Inc. MOLA-00020769
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 3:54:29 PM
Attachments: image.png

Rockaway lanes, Inc.
MOLA-00020769

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Dec 01, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - Scott E. Tanne Esq. P.C. MOLA-00033361
Date: Friday, June 4, 2021 9:44:29 AM
Attachments: image.png

Scott E. Tanne Esq. P.C.
MOLA-00033361

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Nov 30, 2020 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you may be eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program. A cross-reference of your corrected FEIN will be processed with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development as well as the Department of Treasury, Division of Taxation. You will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed within the next 14-21 business days.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kyra Hayward
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.

From: CRM NoReply
Subject: NJEDA Appeal Determination - PANTRY FARM FOOD STORE MOLA-00006848
Date: Tuesday, June 22, 2021 1:06:02 PM
Attachments: image.png

PANTRY FARM FOOD STORE
MOLA-00006848

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated October 14, 2020.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jan 28, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant Program because your business did not have a NJ Business Registration Certificate at the time of application submittal.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tawanna Whittington-Santos
Hearing Officer

Approved by:
/s/ Kim Ehrlich
Director - HUD Programs.