Construction Contractor Registration Certification and new Apprenticeship Program Requirement

Effective April 1, 2020, any and all construction contracts awarded in New Jersey that require payment of prevailing wage must provide proof of valid Construction Contractor Registration Certification (CRC) and proof of participation in Registered Apprenticeship Program, if employing craftworkers. Bidders cannot list any subcontractors in any bid proposal unless the subcontractor is registered. Note that the NJ Prevailing Wage Act requires companies to comply with the new Apprenticeship Program. Information regarding this Act can be found on the NJ Dept. of Labor's Website at: <https://www.nj.gov/labor/wageandhour/registration-permits/register/publicworksregistration.shtml>
