The applicant will be required to submit a certification form to EDA certifying that they are open and operating, that they have used the loan for approved purposes only, and that they are not in default. This form will be included in the loan agreement and must be returned by the applicant 60 days prior to the end of the 5th year so a decision can be made by EDA. If the applicant does not submit the form by that date, they may still qualify for loan forgiveness, however loan payments will continue to be required until their certification form is supplied to and verified by EDA, which will reduce the balance EDA will forgive. Staff will verify the business is open and operating, which may be through an Internet search. If verified, EDA will forgive the remaining balance at the end of year 5 or later if the certification form is not received by the due date as described above. If an applicant is not eligible for forgiveness or does not request forgiveness and submit the required documentation, they are required to continue making their payments as defined in their loan agreement.
Lien/Collateral/Security	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No collateral or guarantees are required • Risk Rating: expected to be substandard. If the risk rating is found to support an override to a lower risk rating, then staff will do so to reflect the appropriate rating. • Applicants that default on their loan may not be eligible to qualify for other NJEDA products until their default is cured by establishing a payment plan with NJEDA.
Fees	Staff is requesting a partial waiver of EDA's standard application and closing fees because of the drastic negative impact of the pandemic on most micro businesses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Application fee of $100 (non-refundable) at time of application
