Timeline

"Eligibility Period"

"Eligibility period" means the period of 5 years during which a cultural arts institution may claim, sell, transfer, or otherwise use a tax credits under the program, beginning with the tax period in which the Authority accepts certification of the cultural arts institution that it has met the capital investment requirements of the program.

How Do Tax Credits Work?

- ▶ An awardee of NJEDA tax credit program will generally sell the credits to an investor or tax credit syndicator.
- ▶ Once the project is completed, the investor or syndicator will claim the credit each year of the eligibility period. Under the CAFE Program, for example, if an awardee receives a $25 million award, the investor can claim a tax credit of $5 million each year during the 5-year eligibility period.
- ▶ An investor or syndicator will buy the tax credits from the awardee for 85 cents (or higher) on the dollar, before discounting. In the example above, if an investor purchases the credit from the awardee for 90 cents on the dollar, the investor will purchase the credit for $4.5 million each year of the 5-year eligibility period.

How Do Tax Credits Work?

- ▶ An awardee of a real estate tax credit program, like CAFE, can use two methods to bring cash into its project.
 - ▶ The first is to bring the proceeds from the sale of the credits into the project each year of the eligibility period.
 - ▶ The second (and most prevalent method) is to enlist a bridge lending source and monetize the credit to bring cash into the project at the beginning of construction. However, the source will typically charge an interest rate that will discount the tax credit award.
 - The bridge lending source will typically be a tax credit investor, bank or syndicator.

MONETIZATION OF CREDITS

- ▶ At time of application, the applicant must show:
 - Terms for sale or transfer of credits at a sale price at or above the minimum program requirement (85¢/$1).
 - How credits will be monetized prior to execution of the tax credit agreement (document showing that buyer will provide funds upfront, bridge loan, etc.)
 - Full funding stack showing availability of funds to cover total project costs

ISSUANCE OF CREDITS

- ▶ Once construction work is done, the cultural arts institution submits documentation to certify that all work was completed in accordance with the agreement work is certified and the 1st tax credit certificate is issued.
- ▶ After tax credit certificate is issued, the cultural arts institution can request a transfer certificate to be issued.

Transfer and Utilization of Credit

Credits must be sold for no less than 85% of their face value

Credits are disbursed over 5 years (after construction is complete). Credits are to be utilized on the year they were issued. Unused credits amounts may be carried forward by transferee for up to 5 subsequent years.

Credits can be sold or transferred only once.
